Galatians: Live in The Truth of Jesus Christ

Part 13 Freedom of Responsibility

". . . if I preach the gospel, I have no reason to boast, because I am compelled to preach—and woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!"

1 Corinthians9:16 (CSB)

1. We are Free to Respond with Careful Compassion.

"[1]Brothers and sisters, if someone is overtaken in any wrongdoing, you who are spiritual, restore such a person with a gentle spirit, watching out for yourselves so that you also won't be tempted."

Galatians 6:1 (CSB)

What is the Qualification? be a spiritual believer
What is the Expectation? restore with a gentle spirit
What is the Stipulation? guard yourself from temptation

Beware of dehumanizing deviants with devious plans!

"[2] At dawn he went to the temple again, and all the people were coming to him. He sat down and began to teach them. [3] Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery, making her stand in the center. [4] "Teacher," they said to him, "this woman was caught in the act of committing adultery. [5] In the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" [6] They asked this to trap him, in order that they might have evidence to accuse him. Jesus stooped down and started writing on the ground with his finger. [7] When they persisted in questioning him, he stood up and said to them, "The one without sin among you should be the first to throw a stone at her." [8] Then he stooped down again and continued writing on the ground. [9] When they heard this, they left one by one, starting with the older men. Only he was left, with the woman in the center. [10] When Jesus stood up, he said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" [11] "No one, Lord," she answered. "Neither do I condemn you," said Jesus. "Go, and from now on do not sin anymore." John 8:2-11 (CSB)

Humble yourself, be silent, wait on The Lord, speak in The Spirit, trust God and demonstrate His Love.

2. We are Free to Respond with Spiritual integrity.

"[2] Carry one another's burdens; in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. [3] For if anyone considers himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. [4] Let each person examine his own work, and then he can take pride in himself alone, and not compare himself with someone else. [5] For each person will have to carry his own load. [6] Let the one who is taught the word share all his good things with the teacher." Galatians 6:2-6 (CSB)

"[1]Now we who are strong have an obligation to bear the weaknesses of those without strength, and not to please ourselves. [2] Each one of us is to please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. [3] For even Christ did not please himself. On the contrary, as it is written, The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me. Psalm 69:9, [4] For whatever was written in the past was written for our instruction, so that we may have hope through endurance and through the encouragement from the Scriptures." Romans 15:1-4 (CSB)

3. We are Free to Respond with Confident Faith.

"[7] Don't be deceived: God is not mocked. For whatever a person sows he will also reap, [8] because the one who sows to his flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, but the one who sows to the Spirit will reap eternal life from the Spirit. [9] Let us not get tired of doing good, for we will reap at the proper time if we don't give up. [10]Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us work for the good of all, especially for those who belong to the household of faith." Galatians 6:7-10 (CSB)

"[20] For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with regard to righteousness. [21] So what fruit was produced then from the things you are now ashamed of? The outcome of those things is death. [22] But now, since you have been set free from sin and have become enslaved to God, you have your fruit, which results in sanctification—and the outcome is eternal life! [23] For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 6:20-23 (CSB)
