

Surrender to the Waves

The Embassy Church - Small Group Notes – Sun, February 14, 2021

The story of Jesus in the boat has always amazed me. Is Jesus challenging us to calm the storm, or is He inviting us to join Him sleeping through it. This message encourages you on how to surrender to the waves, knowing we can find peace with Jesus.

Be blessed!

Pastor Léon van Weerden

Scripture: New Living Translation

- Matthew 8:23-27
- Acts 27:10-25
- Acts 27:44

Discover God's love as we surrender to the waves.

Main Points

1. The Process of Losing Control
2. The Place of Surrender
3. The Plan of Reaching a Sudden Destiny

Jesus says, "In the midst of a storm, come and have a rest with Me."

Starter Questions:

- What did you hear?
 - What point in this message was most impactful for you?
- What do you think?
 - How did this message challenge, change or affirm your thinking?
- What will you do?
 - How will you put into practice what you've learned today?

Jesus always has a different perspective on storms than we do.

Digging Deeper:

Revelation

- Why does God often take the things we usually “lean on” for safety, away from us in the midst of a storm?

Interpretation

- How can we transition to a place of “not fearing” and instead “finding peace” when find ourselves in the midst of a storm?

Application

- Do you need to “Surrender to the Waves” and find rest with Jesus in the midst of a specific storm in your life today?

Find the place of surrendering to the waves, and you will find peace.
