Christ The King Sunday

The hope that leads our life: how our hope in Christs return empowers us in obedience and through suffering

What aspects of this life are you most tempted to put your hope into?

How well does your daily consideration of your inheritance in Christ match the emphasis scripture puts on it?

Think of your life among unbelievers: in the workplace, online, in your neighborhood. Would you say you are characterized by compelling hope?

Do you walk through life as an exile? What do you think that looks like?

How do you feel you personally could better "gird the loins" of your mind? What are some habits and disciplines you could utilize?
