

Good Taste

The Embassy Church - Small Group Notes – Sun, April 11, 2021

Even though tastes differ, a person with a good taste knows how to recognize the beauty in something. This message helps you to understand what it means to taste and see that the Lord is good!

Be blessed!
Pastor Léon van Weerden

The sense of taste is possibly the only one of the five classical senses that for humans, is essential to life.

Scripture:

- Psalm 34:8 (NKJV)
- Psalm 119:103 (NLT)

“Taste and see that the Lord is good. Oh, the joys of those who take refuge in Him” (Psalm 34:8).

Main Points

1. Tastes Differ
2. Taste Discerns: It Warns
3. Taste Discovers: A Taste for the Blessings

Your spiritual taste has everything to do with the blessings in your life.

Starter Questions:

- What did you hear?
 - What point in this message was most impactful for you?
- What do you think?
 - How did this message challenge, change or affirm your thinking?
- What will you do?
 - How will you put into practice what you've learned today?

God has given us "taste" to enjoy blessings, and also to discern what is bad.

Digging Deeper:

Revelation

- What does it mean, "we grow in our gifts" according to "reason of our use" of the gifts?
- What does it mean to have good "spiritual taste" in life?

Interpretation

- How does looking at what we "don't have" de-activate the "blessings" of the Lord?
- How can we "train our spiritual taste" buds to taste the good and discern the bad?

Application

- How is your "spiritual taste"?
