Speaker 1 (00:05):

Hey everybody. Welcome back to the Christmas box journey of looking for the Messiah. Today is day 14, and today we learned that he will be raised from the dead. Just two weeks ago we learned that the Lord promised King David that the great Messiah King would come from David's line would be David's seed. He would rule forever from Jerusalem on David's throne. And so in Psalm 16, David is reflecting on the coming of his future son, the coming seed that would sit on his throne forever, and he prophesies about the Messiah's death and resurrection. And because the Lord will not abandon the Messiah to the grave or allow his body to undergo decay, but he will instead raise him from the dead. Because of this, David has confidence that the Lord will also raise from the dead, all who believe in the Messiah and take refuge in him. And so today we learn that he will be raised from the dead. Join us tomorrow as we continue to look for the Messiah.
