Series: The Beginning of the End

Next Week: Put Your Affairs in Order

If you discovered that your time was short, what unfinished business would suddenly matter most? Perhaps you would repair a damaged relationship, speak words you had been withholding, simplify your priorities, or finally use what you have to bless someone else. Well, Jesus tells us that our time really is limited. We do not know when our lives will end or when he will return. But that does not make our lives meaningless. It makes every day a gift. Christ has entrusted us with people to love, work to do, abilities to use, and opportunities that will not remain open forever.
We are living in the beginning of the end. This is not a reason to panic or retreat from the world. It is a reason to put our affairs in order. Because Jesus has already done everything necessary for our salvation, we are free to stop living for ourselves. His mercy gives us both the reason and the strength to use the time that remains in faithful service to others.

Power of 4: Love, Truth & The Coming King (John & 1 John)

The King Enthroned, the Truth Vindicated

Pilate asks, "What is truth?" while Jesus stands before him. Soon a sign above the cross will call him King. But the story does not end at the grave: the risen Jesus meets Thomas in his doubt and Peter after his denial. Come see how John's Gospel brings love, truth, and kingship together in the crucified and risen Christ, and why his promise to return gives us hope now. We're talking through all of this on Sunday, November 15, in the Fellowship Hall from 10:15-11:15 AM.

We're looking for volunteers to help make hot lunch run smoothly for our students and staff on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11:15 AM–1:30 PM.

Volunteers will help put food on trays and wipe down a few things after the students finish eating. If you can only help for one hour, simply sign up for that time slot. If you're available for the entire time, we'd love to have you!
