Wisdom of the Holy Spirit

for the week of February 9, Graham
For the week of February 16, Parkland

1. Who do you go to for good advice? What's some of the best advice you've ever gotten? What is some of the worst?

2. When you think about the Holy Spirit and His work in our lives, what are the big questions you think of?

3. What role(s) do you think the Holy Spirit plays in your life?

Read 1 Corinthians 2:6-16

4. What stands out to you in this passage? Are there any ideas that are new or confusing for you?

5. What roles do you see the Holy Spirit playing in these verses?

6. What does this passage say the Holy Spirit knows that we don't?

7. What do we receive from God that we don't have already?

8. Based on these verses, what are the differences between someone who is guided by their own conscience and someone who is guided by the Spirit?

9. The Holy Spirit is a person - part of the three-person-one-God that is the Trinity, which means that we have a relationship with him. How might this passage change the way you view that relationship?

10. Does this inform or change how you view your own values, perspectives, and ideas in light of the fact that the Holy Spirit gives us "the mind of Christ"?

11. Take a moment to discuss what it might mean to invite the Holy Spirit to teach you this week. Share areas where you need God's perspective and wisdom and pray together for those things.
