OFFERING HOPE TO ALL WHO THIRST

A TALE OF TWO TABLES

PSALM 78:19, PSALM 23:5, ACTS 10, REVELATION 19:9

The Table of Demand teaches us what happens when we forget about God's provision, protection, love, deliverance, and grace. (Psalm 78:19-19)

The Table of Defiance teaches us what happens when we remember God's provision, protection, love, deliverance, and grace. (Psalm 23:5-6)

I. Table of _____
   a. Psalm 23:5-6
   b. It's not about the table, it's about the _____.
   c. Do your circumstances impact your faith or does your faith impact your circumstances?
   d. Forgetfulness is the enemy to faithfulness, because when forget what God has done, we begin to lose confidence in what God can _____.

II. Remember God's _____
   a. Acts 10
   b. You can be close to the _____ of God and still be distant from the _____ of God.
   c. Every invitation we extend to people to come to the Table of Grace is a rehearsal for the final table.

III. The Wedding Feast of the Lamb
   a. Revelation 19:9

b. The question that began in the wilderness now finds it answer at the Wedding Feast. God has always been able to prepare a table.
c. Revelation 7:9-10
d. Our devotion to Him is not a _____ for His grace; it is a _____ to His grace.

We don't just live for today's _____; we live in anticipation of the _____.

Revelation 22:17
