When the Israelites crossed from Goshen's green to Sinai's dust, they were being stripped of the mindset that life is about storing up and taught to live on daily bread— to depend, not stockpile; to trust, not hoard.

God reminds us that His past provision is our future confidence

Deuteronomy 8:7–20 ESV

Philippians 4:11–12 ESV

Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned, in whatever situation I am, to be content. I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger,...

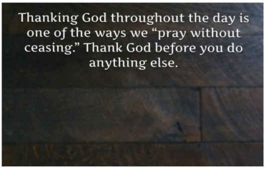
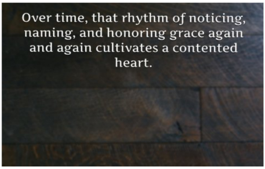
1 Thessalonians 5:16–18 ESV

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

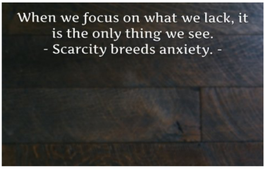
Continue reading »



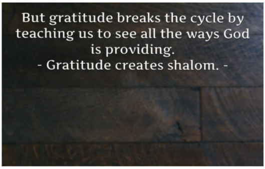
Thanking God throughout the day is one of the ways we “pray without ceasing.” Thank God before you do anything else.



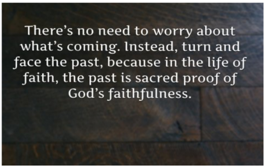
Over time, that rhythm of noticing, naming, and honoring grace again and again cultivates a contented heart.



When we focus on what we lack, it is the only thing we see.
- Scarcity breeds anxiety. -



But gratitude breaks the cycle by teaching us to see all the ways God is providing.
- Gratitude creates shalom. -



There's no need to worry about what's coming. Instead, turn and face the past, because in the life of faith, the past is sacred proof of God's faithfulness.
