- Today's Sermon -

How does God free you from your disobedience?

Chapter 5-6

Ezra 5:1-2 —

Now the prophets, Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel who was over them. Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak arose and began

Zechariah 1:1-17 —

In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo: I saw in the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse! He was standing among the myrtles in a ravine, and behind him were horses red, sorrel and white.

Hebrews 12:2 —

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

John 16:7-8 —

Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness,

> "By repentance is meant, not of the right and sense, not only of the danger, but also of the filthiness and ugliness of his sins, as contrary to the holy nature and righteous law of God, and upon the apprehension of his mercy in Christ to such as are penitent, so grieves for, and hates his sins, as to turn from them all unto God, purposing and endeavoring to walk with him in all the ways of his commandments."

> Westminster Confession

See your sin.

See your sin.
Mourn over your sin.

See your sin.
Mourn over your sin.
Confess your sin.

See your sin.
Mourn over your sin.
Confess your sin.
Hate your sin.

See your sin.
Mourn over your sin.
Confess your sin.
Hate your sin.
Turn from your sin.

No sin is too small to confess.

No sin is too small to confess.
No sin is too great to damn us.

We need to repent of sin specifically, not just generally.

We need to repent of sin specifically, not just generally.

We need to confess before God but also before anyone we have offended.

-2-
Repentance –
It generates bold obedience.

5:2-17

Ezra 5:1 —

John 8:36 —

"Whom ye believe in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

-3-
Obedience –
It enjoys God's protection and provision.

6:1-18

Ezra 6:1 —

Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in Babylonia, in the houses of the archives where the treasures were stored. And in Ecbatana, the citadel that is the province of Media, a scroll was found on which this was written:
