New Activity Tonight: Luke 10:25–37

- New text: Read Luke 10:25–37, the Good Samaritan, in full.
- Interpretation: What question prompted Jesus' parable?
- Proclamation: What central truth should the congregation hear?
- Application: What faithful response does the passage call for?

Group Task: Prepare a Homily Outline

- Work in groups of approximately seven.
- Create a title and one-sentence central proposition.
- Identify two supporting points grounded in Luke 10:25–37.
- Write one contemporary application and a closing sentence.
- Select a spokesperson to share your outline.

Activity Debrief

- Did your central proposition arise from the passage?
- Did you preserve the context of Jesus' conversation?
- Did the application move beyond general advice to love others?
- Could your outline be delivered meaningfully in five minutes?
