Call to Worship Rev. Dr. Chris Heckert

L: We step into a sanctuary where human ambition gives way to divine mercy.

P: Generous God, open our hands to give.

L: God does not measure worth by hours worked or status earned, but welcomes us all to the same table.

P: Generous God, open our hands to give.

L: Let us praise the One whose radical generosity turns our ideas of fairness upside down.

A: Generous God, thank you for welcoming us to your table of grace. Help us to extend that table and to share abundantly from all that you have entrusted to us. Amen.

FAIR

Sermon Notes for Sunday, November 8, 2026. Based on Rev. Yeeun Kim's sermon.

But he replied to one of them, "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?" – Matthew 20:13-15

1. The landowner went out at nine, at noon, at three, and at five o'clock. That is who God is. He went out _____.

2. A denarius was not just a day's wage. It was enough to feed a _____ for one day.

3. Grace does not begin with our merit. It begins with God's _____.

4. Five minutes earlier, one denarius was a good wage. But the moment they looked at the person next to them, it started to look small. Comparison steals _____.

5. Our sense of fairness often asks, "What have I earned?" But grace invites us to ask, "Who else is being _____?"

6. Did we earn the cross? Did we earn our salvation? No. When it comes to God's grace, we are all like the _____ workers.

7. When I was little, I thought Mom holding my sister meant she loved me less. Grace given to someone else does not make your grace _____.

8. Friends, God's grace is not a paycheck. It is a _____.

Questions for Reflection

1. How does viewing this parable through the lens of the landowner's generosity (rather than just the fairness of the wages) change the way you understand God's grace toward you and toward others?

2. When have you looked at the blessings in someone else's hand and felt your own grow smaller? What might it look like to celebrate their grace instead of comparing?

3. Who in your community might still be "standing in the marketplace," waiting for someone to come to them? What is one concrete way you can go out to them this week?

Weekly Prayer Focus - November 8, 2026

November Focus: Generous

Generous God, you give us more grace than we could ever earn or imagine. Open our eyes to the gifts already in our hands, and free us from fear that there will not be enough. Teach us to receive your love with gratitude and share it with open hearts, through our time, care, and resources, so that others may know your abundant goodness. Amen.

Prayer Focus Areas

- Healing and hope for those in need
- Comfort for the grieving and lonely
- Strength for those who care for others
- Our pastors, staff, and ministry leaders
- Those in national leadership roles
- Healing and peace for our world

This Week's Prayer Focus — New List

AWAITING THE ALREADY*: ADVENT CLASS

Wednesdays, Dec. 2, 9, 16 | 7-8pm | Theater Room (Room 302) and on Zoom

This Advent, join Pastor Yeeun Kim for a three-week book study on Awaiting the Already by Magrey deVega. The book walks through how each of the four Gospels tells the story of Jesus coming into the world, and invites us to live in the space between waiting for Christ and knowing he has already come. Each week will include reading, conversation, and reflection on what the Advent story means for our faith today. No Bible study background is needed, and you are welcome even if you can't attend every week.

Register: haddonfieldumc.org/classes, Study section of Haddonfield UMC mobile app, or scan the QR code.

SENSORY-FRIENDLY HOLIDAY MOVIE EVENT

Saturday, December 5 | 11am-1pm | Movie Theater (Room 302)

Join the HUMC Diversability Team on Saturday, December 5, from 11am-1pm for a festive sensory-friendly movie experience! We'll go on an adventure with Kevin McAllister as he finds himself spending Christmas in a very unexpected way–and discovers that being home alone might be a little more exciting than he planned. We'll enjoy the movie in our Movie Theater (Room 302), with a sensory-friendly environment that includes low lighting, sound at a comfortable level, and the freedom to wiggle, make noise, and take breaks as needed. Pizza lunch and snacks will be available, along with hot chocolate. We hope you'll join us for a little Christmas mischief! Register at by visiting https://bit.ly/sensory-friendly-movie or by scanning the QR code for the form.

HUMC KIDS ADVENT WORKSHOP–SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6

Sunday, December 6 | 5-7pm | Fellowship Hall

Celebrate the joy of the season with crafts, food, and festive fun at the HUMC Kids Advent Workshop on Sunday, December 6, from 5–7pm in Fellowship Hall! This free, family-friendly event is a wonderful way to gather with loved ones, enjoy sugar cookie decorating, sip hot chocolate, and share a light dinner together. In the spirit of giving, we will also be collecting brand-new teddy bears or plushies for our church's Operation Bear Hug mission project (see haddonfieldumc.org/christmas), bringing comfort and cheer to patients in local hospitals. Bring your creativity, your family, and your holiday spirit for an evening full of joy, laughter, and togetherness! For more information or to volunteer, contact Julie Robertson at jrobertson@haddonfieldumc.org.

NEW TUESDAY EVENING CONNECT GROUP

Tuesdays | 7pm | Sayre Pavilion

Looking for a way to connect with others and grow in faith during the week? We are excited to introduce our new in-person evening Connect Group, led by Ben White! This group will meet every Tuesday at 7pm in Sayre Pavilion. Each week, the group will gather around our Connect Guide to reflect on Sunday's Scripture and sermon, share prayer requests, and grow together in faith and friendship. Everyone is welcome, and we would love for you to join us!

GRACE AND SCANDAL: NOVEMBER STUDY

Next Session: Wednesday, November 18 | 7pm | Zoom Only

Trickster. Traitor. Migrant. Queen. Who are the four women named in Matthew's genealogy of Jesus, and what do they have to tell us about the messiah? Join Sara Wegman for week two of this four-week Bible study on Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, and Bathsheba on Wednesday, November 18. This is a remote study offered via Zoom. All are welcome. Note: The class will skip November 11 and conclude in December.

THE CHOSEN SEASON TWO DISCUSSION GROUP

Mondays through December 7 | 7–8:30pm | Theater (Room 302)

Join us for week four of an eight-week series as we watch and discuss Season 2 of The Chosen. This is a guided, discussion-based group—not a lecture—designed for honest questions and personal reflection. No prior Bible knowledge is required; all are welcome!

Register: haddonfieldumc.org/classes or scan the QR code.

HUMC CEMETERY INFORMATION

How many of you are aware that our church has its own cemetery located on Kings Highway next to the Mews townhomes? It happens to be located at the original site of the second Haddonfield Methodist Episcopal Church, which stood there from 1835-1857. The cemetery committee has been busy making improvements and enhancing the overall look in preparation for the bicentennial of HUMC in 2029. We have also established an updated list of decorating guidelines along with a brief history of the cemetery, both of which can be found at haddonfieldumc.org/cemetery. The committee will be sending a letter to the families who currently have plots with a brochure highlighting the specifics of decorating guidelines.

FEEL SAFER WITH HUMC CHECK-IN MINISTRY

HUMC has a check-in program for anyone who lives alone or with someone unable to call or help in an emergency. You call or text every day; if you fail to, we will reach out to you; if you don't reply, we will contact a relative or neighbor you recommend, to check up on you. Forms are available in the Welcome Center.

STEPHEN MINISTERS AVAILABLE TO WORK WITH YOU

If you're struggling, you don't have to face it alone. Our trained Stephen Ministers provide confidential, one-to-one Christian care, matching men with men and women with women to offer support, prayer, and encouragement. To learn more for yourself or a loved one, reach out to leaders Janice McNally or Lou Schopfer at office@haddonfieldumc.org.

THE CHERRY HILL FOOD PANTRY COLLECTION

The Cherry Hill Food Pantry's list of most needed items includes:: nonperishable food items, bar soap, coffee, jams and jellies (brand names only), laundry detergent, and canned tuna.
