Made in the Image of Christ

Optional Ice Breaker · 5-10 min

If you could invite one person to Thanksgiving - living or dead, real, or fictional - who would it be and why? (Other than Jesus or other biblical figures!)

LEADERS: Please share these announcements with your Home Group!

Church Work Day

Join us on Sunday, November 22 at 12:30 pm as we hang outdoor Christmas lights, add festive touches around the church, and tackle a few small projects. Bring the family and enjoy a fun day of serving together. We'll provide lunch, so bring your helping hands and Christmas spirit!

Register to let us know you're coming.

Read God’s Word Aloud

Hebrews 1:1-4 (ESV)

1 Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

3 He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Discuss God’s Word and God’s World

Important: The goal is to use this Guide to spark sanctifying conversation and opportunities for intercessory prayer, not to “get through” every question like a checklist. Feel free to linger on the questions that best facilitate that for your group.

Start here: Take a few moments to share and reflect together on what stood out to you from this week's Bible passage and the sermon.

• In what ways does Jesus act as a prophet, a priest, and a king?

• Which of those roles brings you the greatest comfort, and why?

• Mike talked about how we image Christ in his roles as prophet (speaking to others for God), priest (mediating between others and God), and king (bringing order and goodness into our domain). Which of those areas come most naturally to you? Which is more of a stretch for you?

• In what way(s) can our group image Christ in those areas together?

Finish here: Spend time discussing ways that you can encourage and remind one another of the truths from God's word throughout this next week. Pray for one another using the prayer guidance provided below.

Sanctificational Prayer Guidance

Thank You for the gift of relationships and the people You place in our lives. May every connection bring us closer to You.

Teach us, Jesus, to live as you did as prophets, priests, and rulers in our fallen world.

Spend some time thinking and praying over any relationships where you need the Lord to bring restoration.

Family Memory Verse

NOVEMBER

Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

Proverbs 3:7 (ESV)
