

Jesus Is the Life

John 11:20–27, 38–44

1. The Messiah Brings Life from Death (John 11:20–27)

- Martha believed in a future resurrection, but Jesus said, “I am the _____ and the _____.”
- Eternal life begins the moment we _____ in Him.

Notes: _____

2. The Messiah Brings Glory from Grief (John 11:38–44)

- Jesus said: “Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the _____ of God?”
- Jesus gave Lazarus a new _____ life and a _____.
- Jesus gave Mary and Martha:
 - He _____ up.
 - He _____ with them.
 - He displayed His _____ and _____ over death.

Notes: _____

Applications for Believers

1. Live with Eternal Perspective

- Death is not the end.
- Application: Face trials, aging, and grief with _____, knowing eternal life is already yours.

2. Experience Christ's Life Now

- Eternal life begins at faith; abundant life means _____, _____, and _____ in Christ now.
- Application: Don't wait for heaven — live in His presence today.

3. Trust Jesus in Your Grief

- Jesus _____ with Mary and Martha.
- Application: Bring your pain honestly to Him and receive His _____.

4. Believe and Share the Good News

- Jesus asked Martha: “Do you _____ this?”
- Application: Affirm your faith and share it with a _____ world.

Notes: _____

Applications for Seekers / Unbelievers

1. Recognize Your _____ – Without Christ you may exist, but you don't truly live.
2. Respond in _____ – Jesus' question is personal: “Do you believe this?”
3. Receive _____ – Eternal security and abundant living begin when you trust Jesus.

Notes: _____

Key Truth to Take Home:

Jesus offers more than existence — He gives eternal life that never ends and abundant life worth living right now.