

The Gospel in Three Movements

1 Corinthians 15:3–4; Luke 24:26 (ESV)

Introduction

- The gospel is not a single moment, but a story with _____.
- According to Paul, the gospel of first importance includes:
  - Christ _____ for our sins
  - Christ was _____
  - Christ was _____ on the third day
- Jesus teaches that suffering and glory are _____ parts of the same plan.

Movement One: The Incarnation — The Theme Introduced

- The incarnation means God _____ the world in human flesh.
- Jesus did not merely appear; He _____.
- The theme introduced at Christmas is: God _____ us.
- Nothing is resolved yet, but everything has _____.

Movement Two: The Crucifixion — The Theme Carried Through Suffering

- At the cross, the theme of God's love moves into _____.
- Jesus died _____ our sins in accordance with the Scriptures.
- The cross shows that forgiveness is _____, not cheap.
- For a moment, it seems as though the story might end in _____.

Movement Three: The Resurrection — The Theme Resolved in Glory

- The resurrection is not a new theme, but the _____ of the original one.
- Christ was raised on the _____ day in accordance with the Scriptures.
- Because Christ is raised:
  - Our faith is not _____.
  - Death has been _____.
  - Hope is _____ and secure.
- Jesus is the _____ of those who will be raised.

Conclusion

- The gospel does not end in _____.
- Christmas introduces the theme.
The cross carries the theme through _____.
The resurrection brings the theme to _____.
- Because Christ is _____, the story ends in life, glory, and hope.

Christ is risen — and because He lives, _____.
