Connect Questions:

1. How is Biblical hope distinct from the world's hope?
How does the root meaning of hope (Tikvah in Joshua 2) help us understand how to maintain hope in our struggles?
2. Where in your life do you need to hold on to the hope found in connection to Jesus?
3. Why do you think the Bible uses the image of light so often in reference to Jesus? Where do you see the light of Christ at work in and around your life?
4. How has Jesus proven Himself to be Prophet, Priest, & King?
How can we allow Him to fulfill these roles in our lives in a way that strengthens our hope?

Memory Verse: Joshua 2:21 NKJV <sup>21</sup> Then she said, "According to your words, so be it." And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet cord in the window.
