

Read: Mark 10:35-45

Connect Questions:

1. How was Jesus' leadership different from what we often see in the world? How was the Apostle Paul's like His?
2. What are you asking the LORD for in your life today? What is your motivation for asking? What should it be?
3. What does it mean to be a "disciple"? Looking at the life of Jesus, what might being His disciple look like? What cost(s) are we willing to pay to follow Him?
4. According to Jesus what makes us great in the kingdom? Why is servant leadership so rare? What needs to change in your leadership style?

Memory Verse: Mark 10:43,44 NKJV ⁴³Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant. ⁴⁴And whoever of you desires to be first shall be slave of all.
