Read: Luke 11:1-4

Connect Questions:

1. Why is it so hard to yield our will and submit to the will of God? What have you seen happen in your life when you did not? When you did? Where do you need to do this right now?
2. How often do we pray for “daily bread”? Why is it important even when our fridge/pantry is full?
3. Why is forgiveness so critical in our spiritual walk? Where do you need to receive it? Where do you need to give it? How are giving and receiving forgiveness related according to this passage?
4. What does it mean to ask God to “not lead us into temptation” (James 1:13)?
5. How does God deliver us from the evil one? When have you experienced this? What is our role in this deliverance (James 4:7)?

Memory Verses: Luke 11:3-4 NKJV

³ Give us day by day our daily bread.

⁴ And forgive us our sins,

For we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

And do not lead us into temptation,

But deliver us from the evil one.”
