

1. From the sermon, fill in the blanks regarding the focus of this new series:

The work you put into making your _____ work, must center on the finished work of _____.

2. Fill in the blanks regarding the main emphasis of this sermon:

Appreciating my _____ forgiveness in Jesus enables me to extend _____ forgiveness.

3. Read Matthew 18:21-22. What does Jesus teach about forgiveness here?

a. What does it mean to forgive another? Note – forgiveness can occur when a person asks for it (see Luke 17:3-4), but also when a person does not ask for it (see Mark 11:25).

b. What do you find difficult about Jesus' teaching here?

c. What excuses have you made to avoid forgiving others?

4. Read Matthew 18:23-35. From the sermon, explain the significance of the 10,000 talents and the 100 denarii.

a. According to v. 34-35, what happens to the person who consistently refuses to forgive? How do we reconcile this with Titus 3:5? Consider James 2:14, 17-18 and Matthew 7:16-20.

b. From the parable, whom should you identify with, and why should this transform the way you view forgiveness? Consider Colossians 2:13-14.

c. What keeps you from being more amazed by how FORGIVEN you actually are?

5. How has unforgiveness harmed you personally?

6. Why do relationships that work require limitless forgiveness?

a. Why does forgiveness not equal forgetfulness of past offenses?

7. What did you find impactful about the story of the holocaust survivor Rose Price?

8. Are there people you have not forgiven? Are there people you are resistant to bless because of past offenses? Name them and explain how you will go about obeying God's command to be a limitless forgiver.

Our Mission: To lead many out of separation from God and into a life-transforming, joy-filled relationship with Him.
