

Part 11: Follow Followers of Scripture

2 Timothy 3:10-17

1. What happens when everyone wants to lead, and no one is willing to follow? _____

2. Fill in the blanks from the “Spiritual Principle” – Godly leaders _____ those who _____ follow _____.

3. Read 2 Timothy 3:10-13. Why is Paul OK with highlighting his personal example to Timothy? Consider James 1:17 and John 3:27. _____

a. What specific things do we learn about Paul’s character? _____

b. Why is willingness to suffer for Jesus a key sign for a leader I should want to follow?

c. What is the difference between being a godly leader vs. being a perfect leader? _____

d. What happens when we expect godly leaders to be perfect? _____

e. Name 3 of the godliest examples of people you personally know. Why do they stand out to you? How can you grow in following their example? _____

4. Read 2 Timothy 3:14-15. Why must we always connect each part of the Bible to Jesus – to the gospel?

a. What practical step can you take this week to help your child (young or old) become more “acquainted with the sacred writings”? _____

b. Give examples of how the Old Testament points to faith in Jesus. _____

5. Read 2 Timothy 3:16-17. What does it mean for “all” Scripture to be “breathed out by God”?

a. Why must I continue to remember that the whole Bible is “profitable”? _____

b. How can I tell if I’m being more influence by a political party or a media outlet, than I am with Scripture? _____

6. Why must I keep following Scripture when it:

a. Convicts me – _____

b. Perplexes me – _____

c. Comforts me – _____

7. Have you ignored something in Scripture that convicted you? If so, what? How will you move forward?

8. What in the Bible perplexes you that you need to seek greater understanding for? _____

9. What comforting biblical truth do you need to cling to right now? _____
