

1. Why should we expect even secular entertainment to be filled with beauty?

---

---

a. Read Isaiah 6:3 and Psalm 19:1. What does seeing beauty do for the spiritually minded follower of Jesus?

---

---

b. Why should every Christian hunt for “beauty” each day?

---

2. Read Psalm 119:37. Why is it significant that this verse is a prayer?

---

---

a. Why do we need to “Turn” our eyes when it comes to entertainment?

---

---

b. What do the following verses highlight about our “eyes”? 2 Peter 2:14, Philippians 3:17, Mark 9:47.

---

---

c. Why doesn’t God want us looking at and being drawn into “worthless things”?

---

---

d. What are some obvious types of entertainment that are “worthless”?

---

---

e. What types of entertainment are “worthless” that may not be so obvious?

---

---

f. Can some types of entertainment be OK for some Christians and not OK for others? Consider Romans 14:5, 23. Explain.

---

---

g. v. 37 prays for God to “give me life”. How can God bring a richer quality of life to us through certain types of entertainment?

---

---

h. How do certain types of entertainment “give me death”? Consider Romans 8:6.

---

---

i. When v. 37 says “in your ways”, it refers to God’s ways revealed in the Bible. What is the connection between a mind saturated with Scripture and enriching your life through entertainment?

---

---

3. Read Philippians 4:8. Why is asking myself, “Will I be closer to Jesus or further from Him after watching, listening, playing, or reading this?” – the right question to ask? Consider 1Corinthians 10:31 as well.

---

---

4. Why should some Christians consider a major, or even complete detox from secular entertainment for a season?

---

---

5. What does it mean to “eat the meat and spit out the bones” regarding secular entertainment?

---

---

a. At what point do you decide that there are too many “bones” and avoid “eating” all together?

---

---

b. How do you determine how much is too much entertainment in your life?

---

---

c. How can a song impact us even more than a show? Why should this encourage great discernment with song choice and lyrics?

---

---

6. How do you determine what types of humor are appropriate and what types are not?

---

---

7. Why is there unique value in finding beauty through reading books? How can you grow in reading quality books?

---

---

8. Read 2 Corinthians 3:18. How does beholding the beauty of Jesus in Scripture impact every aspect of our lives, including our entertainment choices?

---

---