

Multiplication

Genesis 1:28, Acts 6:7

September 14, 2025

DAY 1: THE HEART OF MULTIPLICATION

READING: GENESIS 1:26-28, ACTS 1:8

God's heart for multiplication is woven throughout Scripture, from creation to the Great Commission. In Genesis, we see God blessing humanity with the command to "be fruitful and multiply." This wasn't just about physical reproduction, but about spreading God's image and glory throughout the earth. Jesus echoes this in Acts 1:8, commissioning His followers to be witnesses to the ends of the earth.

Reflect on how you're participating in God's plan for multiplication. Are you actively sharing your faith and discipling others? Consider ways you can be more intentional about spreading God's love and truth in your sphere of influence. Pray for opportunities to be a witness and for the courage to seize them when they arise.

DAY 2: A CHURCH THAT MULTIPLIES

READING: ACTS 6:1-7, MATTHEW 28:18-20

The early church in Acts provides a powerful example of multiplication in action. Despite challenges, "the number of disciples multiplied greatly" (Acts 6:7). This growth wasn't just numerical; it represented lives transformed by the Gospel. Jesus' Great Commission in Matthew 28 reminds us that making disciples is at the heart of the church's mission.

Consider your role in and around VPC. Are you actively involved in discipleship, either being discipled or discipling others? Reflect on how you can contribute to a culture of multiplication in your faith community. Pray for your church leaders and for a renewed passion for disciple-making among the whole community.

DAY 3: REACHING THE ONE

READING: LUKE 15:1-32

Jesus' parables in Luke 15 reveal God's heart for the lost. Whether it's a lost sheep, coin, or son, there's great rejoicing when what was lost is found. This reflects the Father's deep love for each individual and His desire for all to come to repentance.

Reflect on your own journey of faith. How has God pursued you? Who are the "lost" in your life that God might be calling you to reach out to? Pray for a heart that breaks for what breaks God's heart, and for courage to share His love with those who don't yet know Him.

Multiplication

Genesis 1:28, Acts 6:7

September 14, 2025

DAY 4: MULTIPLYING BEYOND COMFORT

READING: ACTS 8:1-8, ISAIAH 6:8

The early church's growth often came through uncomfortable circumstances. In Acts 8, persecution scattered believers, but this led to the Gospel spreading to new regions. Isaiah's willing response to God's call – "Here am I, send me!" – exemplifies the attitude needed for multiplication.

Consider the comfort zones in your life that might be hindering your spiritual growth or witness. Are there areas where God is calling you to step out in faith? Reflect on Isaiah's response and pray for a willingness to go wherever God leads, even if it's uncomfortable or unexpected.

DAY 5: A VISION FOR KINGDOM GROWTH

READING: MATTHEW 13:31-33, EPHESIANS 3:20-21

Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to a mustard seed and leaven – small beginnings that lead to exponential growth. This growth isn't just about numbers, but about the transformative power of the Gospel spreading through communities and nations. Paul's prayer in Ephesians reminds us that God is able to do "far more abundantly than all that we ask or think."

Reflect on your vision for Kingdom growth. Are you dreaming big enough? How can you align your goals and aspirations with God's heart for multiplication? Pray for faith to believe in God's power to do the impossible and for wisdom to discern how He wants to use you in His grand plan of redemption.