one another in our homes

Sermon: Ted Rastatter

Text: Galatians 2:1-10

Circumcision. Who would've guessed this is where we were starting this week in Galatians, but here we are! There was something deeper intended than just this physical act, and that is the fact that there is nothing we can do or add to the gospel except what Jesus did for us on the cross. Let us chat a bit about why this is so important.

- 1) Ted spoke of the adversary who wants to try and take our freedom. What are some of the ways that he can try and lead us astray?
- 2) What is our only defense against the enemy when it comes to fighting for our freedom? (*hint* Ted shared a song lyric)
- 3) Do you truly believe in God's goodness? Discuss the Israelites in the book of exodus. How can their heart posture in times of trouble remind us of how we act today?
- 4) How are we keeping "the main thing the main thing"? What does one need to do to become a Christian? If the gospel truly is this simple, what do we do with new Christian's who have not "changed" when they enter our church?

Colossians 3:16 tells us to "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs with thankfulness in our hearts to God". This evening go and do likewise
