Today's Message:

"A New Home"

INTRODUCTION

Last week, we continued our study of the new man with what we must PUT ON every day. The world does not need to see a better you, they need to see Christ in you! Today, we continue with more practical applications of this truth. Christians who obey the word of God completely transform their homes and lives for God's glory. The Spirit wasted no time through Paul to give practical and specific commands to obey. The first place where the new man must visibly operate is at home. God's blueprint for marriage and family is simple and clear. Pay attention. This is God's message to you...

If wives rebel against biblical order: Strife grows; children learn disorder instead of peace.

If husbands fail to love: Wives get hurt; children become insecure; spiritual leadership void.

If children disobey: Rebellion and consequences compound; home is chaotic, not peaceful.

If fathers provoke: Children wither emotionally, become distant, lose confidence, direction.
