TALK IT OVER

WEEK FOUR Break Me

Think back through the message. What sticks out to you?

Key Scriptures

Meanwhile, Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had previously had leprosy. While he was eating, a woman came in with a beautiful alabaster jar of expensive perfume made from essence of nard. She broke open the jar and poured the perfume over his head. Mark 14:3 NLT

Mark 14:22-24

He took some bread and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” Luke 22:19

Start talking. Find a conversation starter for your group.

- Name the most expensive thing you've broken. Okay, how'd you break it?
- What's something you hate to see get poured out or wasted?

Start thinking. Ask questions to get your group thinking.

- What point do you think Mark was trying to make by putting the story of the woman and the Passover next to each other?
- Imagine you were in the room when this woman broke the jar worth a year's wages. How would you respond?
- Read Luke 22:19. What all do you think Jesus wanted us to do when He said, “... do this in remembrance of me”?

Start sharing. Choose questions that create openness.

- Are you trying to stay strong in an area of weakness or hold on to something you need to pour out? What's keeping you from giving it to God?
- Describe what a broken and poured out life could look like.
- How has God used broken areas from your past to help others?

Start praying. Be bold, and pray specifically.

- Jesus, You've told us to keep doing what You did: be broken and poured out to bring people closer to God. Will You embolden us to really start living this way? Amen.

Start digging. Read Scripture about brokenness.

Psalm 51:17

2 Corinthians 4:7-12

Isaiah 53:4-5

Romans 12:1

Start doing. Commit to a step, and live it out this week.

- Feeling risky? Start the Dangerous Prayers Bible Plan on the YouVersion Bible App.
- You have something to pour out. Empty every last drop for God this week.
- Start each day by asking God to give you opportunities to rely on His strength alone.
