

Revealed 3 – Eyes on Eternity (Revelation 4–5)

Where we look determines what we hear.

Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls.

—Hebrews 12:1-3

You can have a temporal view or an eternal view.

If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

—1 Corinthians 15:19 KJV

The Revelation of Jesus Christ puts everything into proper perspective.

“He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.”

—Ecclesiastes 3:11 NKJV

I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet, saying, “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last,” and, “What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.” Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands, and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band.

—Revelation 1:10-13

The vision of heaven’s throne room and the Lamb who is worthy changes your view of everything in this life.
