

Men's Roundtable: A Quest for Authentic Manhood

Session 8: Living Out Redeemed Masculinity (Pt. I)

A Man Living Out a Redeemed Masculinity...

1. Includes his wife in _____ the future.
2. Accepts _____ for his family.
3. Prays _____ and _____ his wife on a regular basis.
4. Is willing to say " _____ " and " _____ " to his family.

It's not about being perfect, but about being _____ .

5. Discusses _____ responsibilities with his wife and makes sure they are fairly distributed.
6. Goes over the upcoming week with his wife to clarify their _____ and _____ any pressure points.
7. Provides _____ for his family's basic _____.
8. Keeps his family financially sound and out of harmful _____.
9. Seeks the consultation of his wife on all _____ decisions.
10. Makes sure he and his wife have drawn up a _____ and have arranged a well-conceived plan for their _____ in case of death.
11. _____ with commitments he has made to his wife.
12. Demonstrates _____.

What you say only makes sense if your _____ matches it.

13. Anticipates the _____ his marriage will pass through.
14. Frequently tells his wife _____. He _____ her often in public.
15. Encourages his wife to _____ as an individual. He provides time for his wife to pursue personal _____.
16. Deals with _____ so he can _____ with his wife and family.
17. Works to keep _____ in the relationship. Love has to be communicated both verbally and in action – sacrificial action.

You are the _____ leader of your home.

18. Anticipates the stages his _____ will pass through and _____ them through each stage.
19. Takes time to give his children _____ about life, which gives them _____ with their peers.
20. Lets his children into the _____ of his life.
21. Explains _____ to each child in a way that leads to a wholesome perspective.
22. _____ meaningful family traditions.
23. Initiates _____ for the family on a regular basis.
24. Leads his wife in establishing sound, biblically-supportable family _____.
25. _____ to other men who are dedicated to developing their _____ and improving their _____ as men, husbands, and fathers.

Discussion Questions

1. As a group, have each individual share the few things he feels called to begin working on now.
2. In what ways can you help one another put some of these principles of redeemed masculinity into action? Consider ways you can spur one another on to excel and grow through this.