
GOD
With Us
"...She will give birth to a son and will call him Immanuel, which means 'God is with us.'" Isaiah 7:14
Starting Next Sunday December 1st

THE PRACTICE OF Remembrance

[1] I cried out to God for help; I cried out to God to hear me. [2] When I was in distress, I sought the Lord; at night I stretched out untiring hands, and I would not be comforted. [3] I remembered you, God, and I groaned; I meditated, and my spirit grew faint. [6] I remembered my songs in the night. My heart meditated and my spirit asked: [7] “Will the Lord reject forever? Will he never show his favor again? [10] Then I thought, “To this I will appeal: the years when the Most High stretched out his right hand. [11] I will remember the deeds of the Lord; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago. [12] I will consider all your works and meditate on all your mighty deeds.” [13] Your ways, God, are holy. What god is as great as our God? [14] You are the God who performs miracles; you display your power among the peoples.

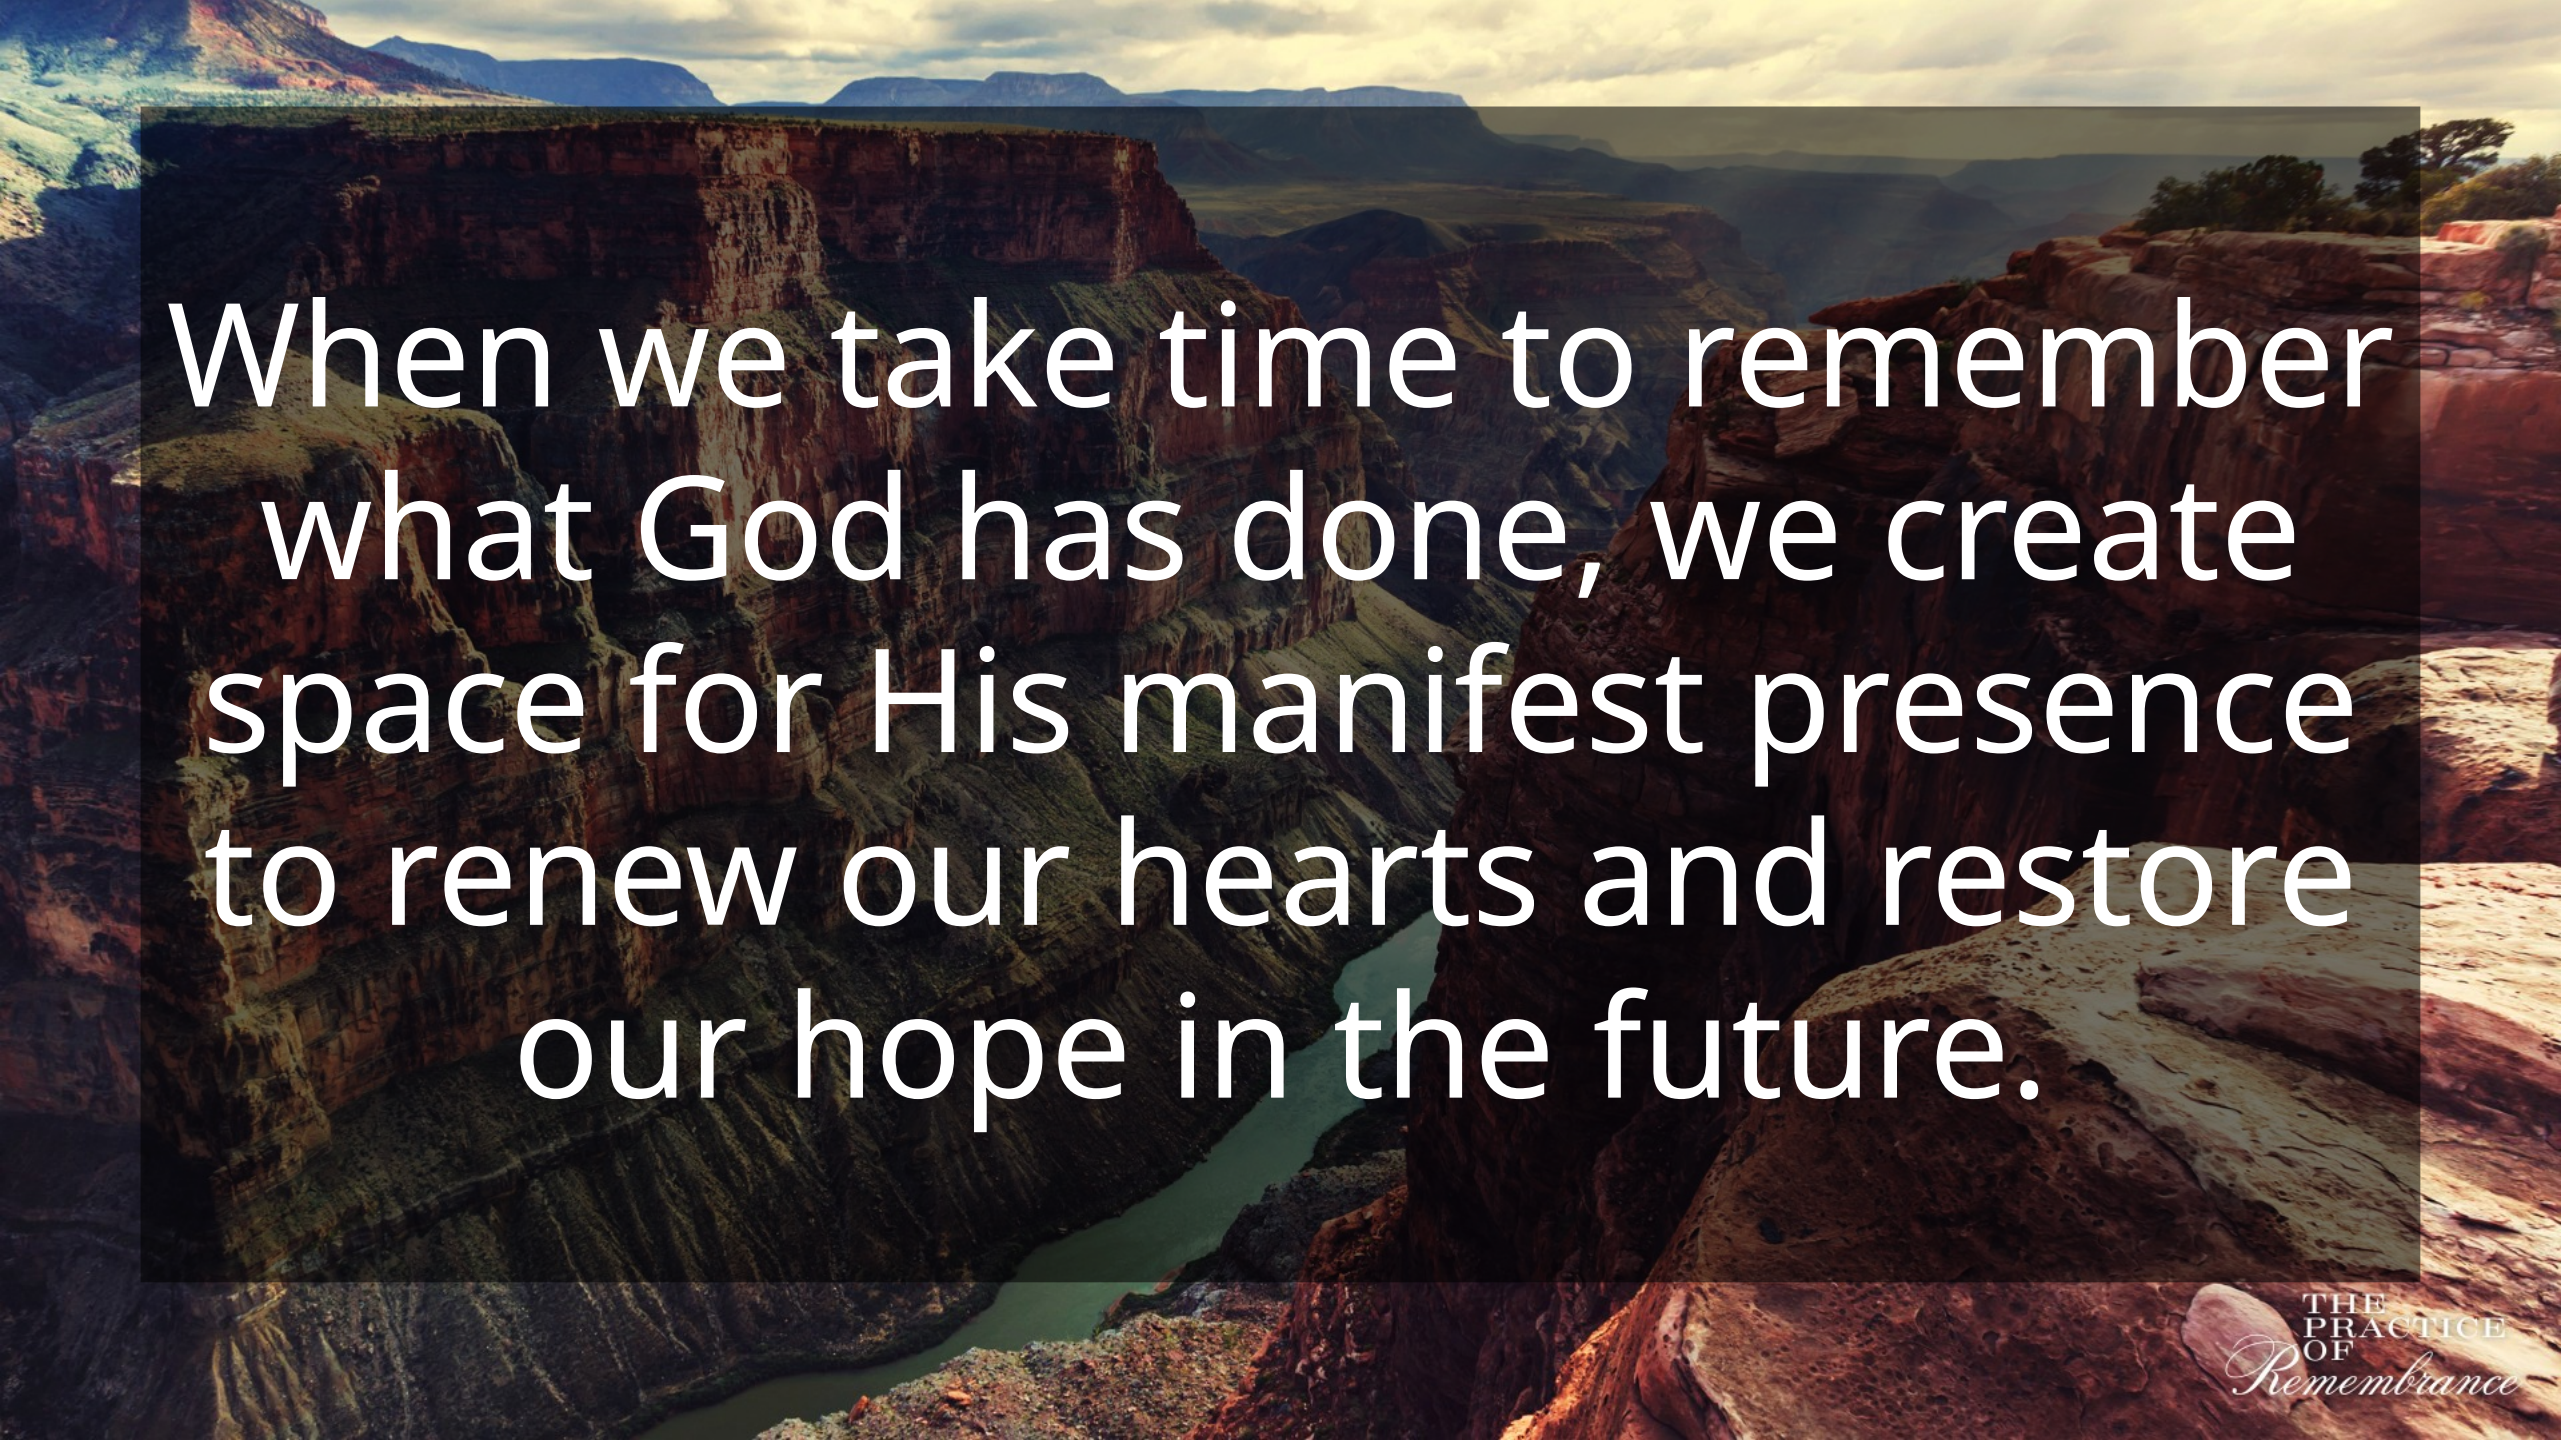

Psalm 77:1-3,6-7,10-14 NIV

THE PRACTICE OF Remembrance

Remembering in Deuteronomy

- Remember the day you stood before the Lord at Horeb (4:10)
- Remember what the Lord your God did to Pharoah (7:18)
- Remember how he led you all the way in the wilderness (8:2)
- Remember the Lord your God is the one who gives you the ability to produce wealth (8:18)
- Remember and don't forget how you aroused the Lord's anger in the wilderness (9:7)
- Remember when you left Egypt (16:3)
- Remember what the Lord did to Miriam (24:9)
- Remember the days of old; consider the generations long past (25:17)
- Remember that you where slaves in Egypt (5:15, 15:15, 16:12, 24:9, 24:18, 24:22,)

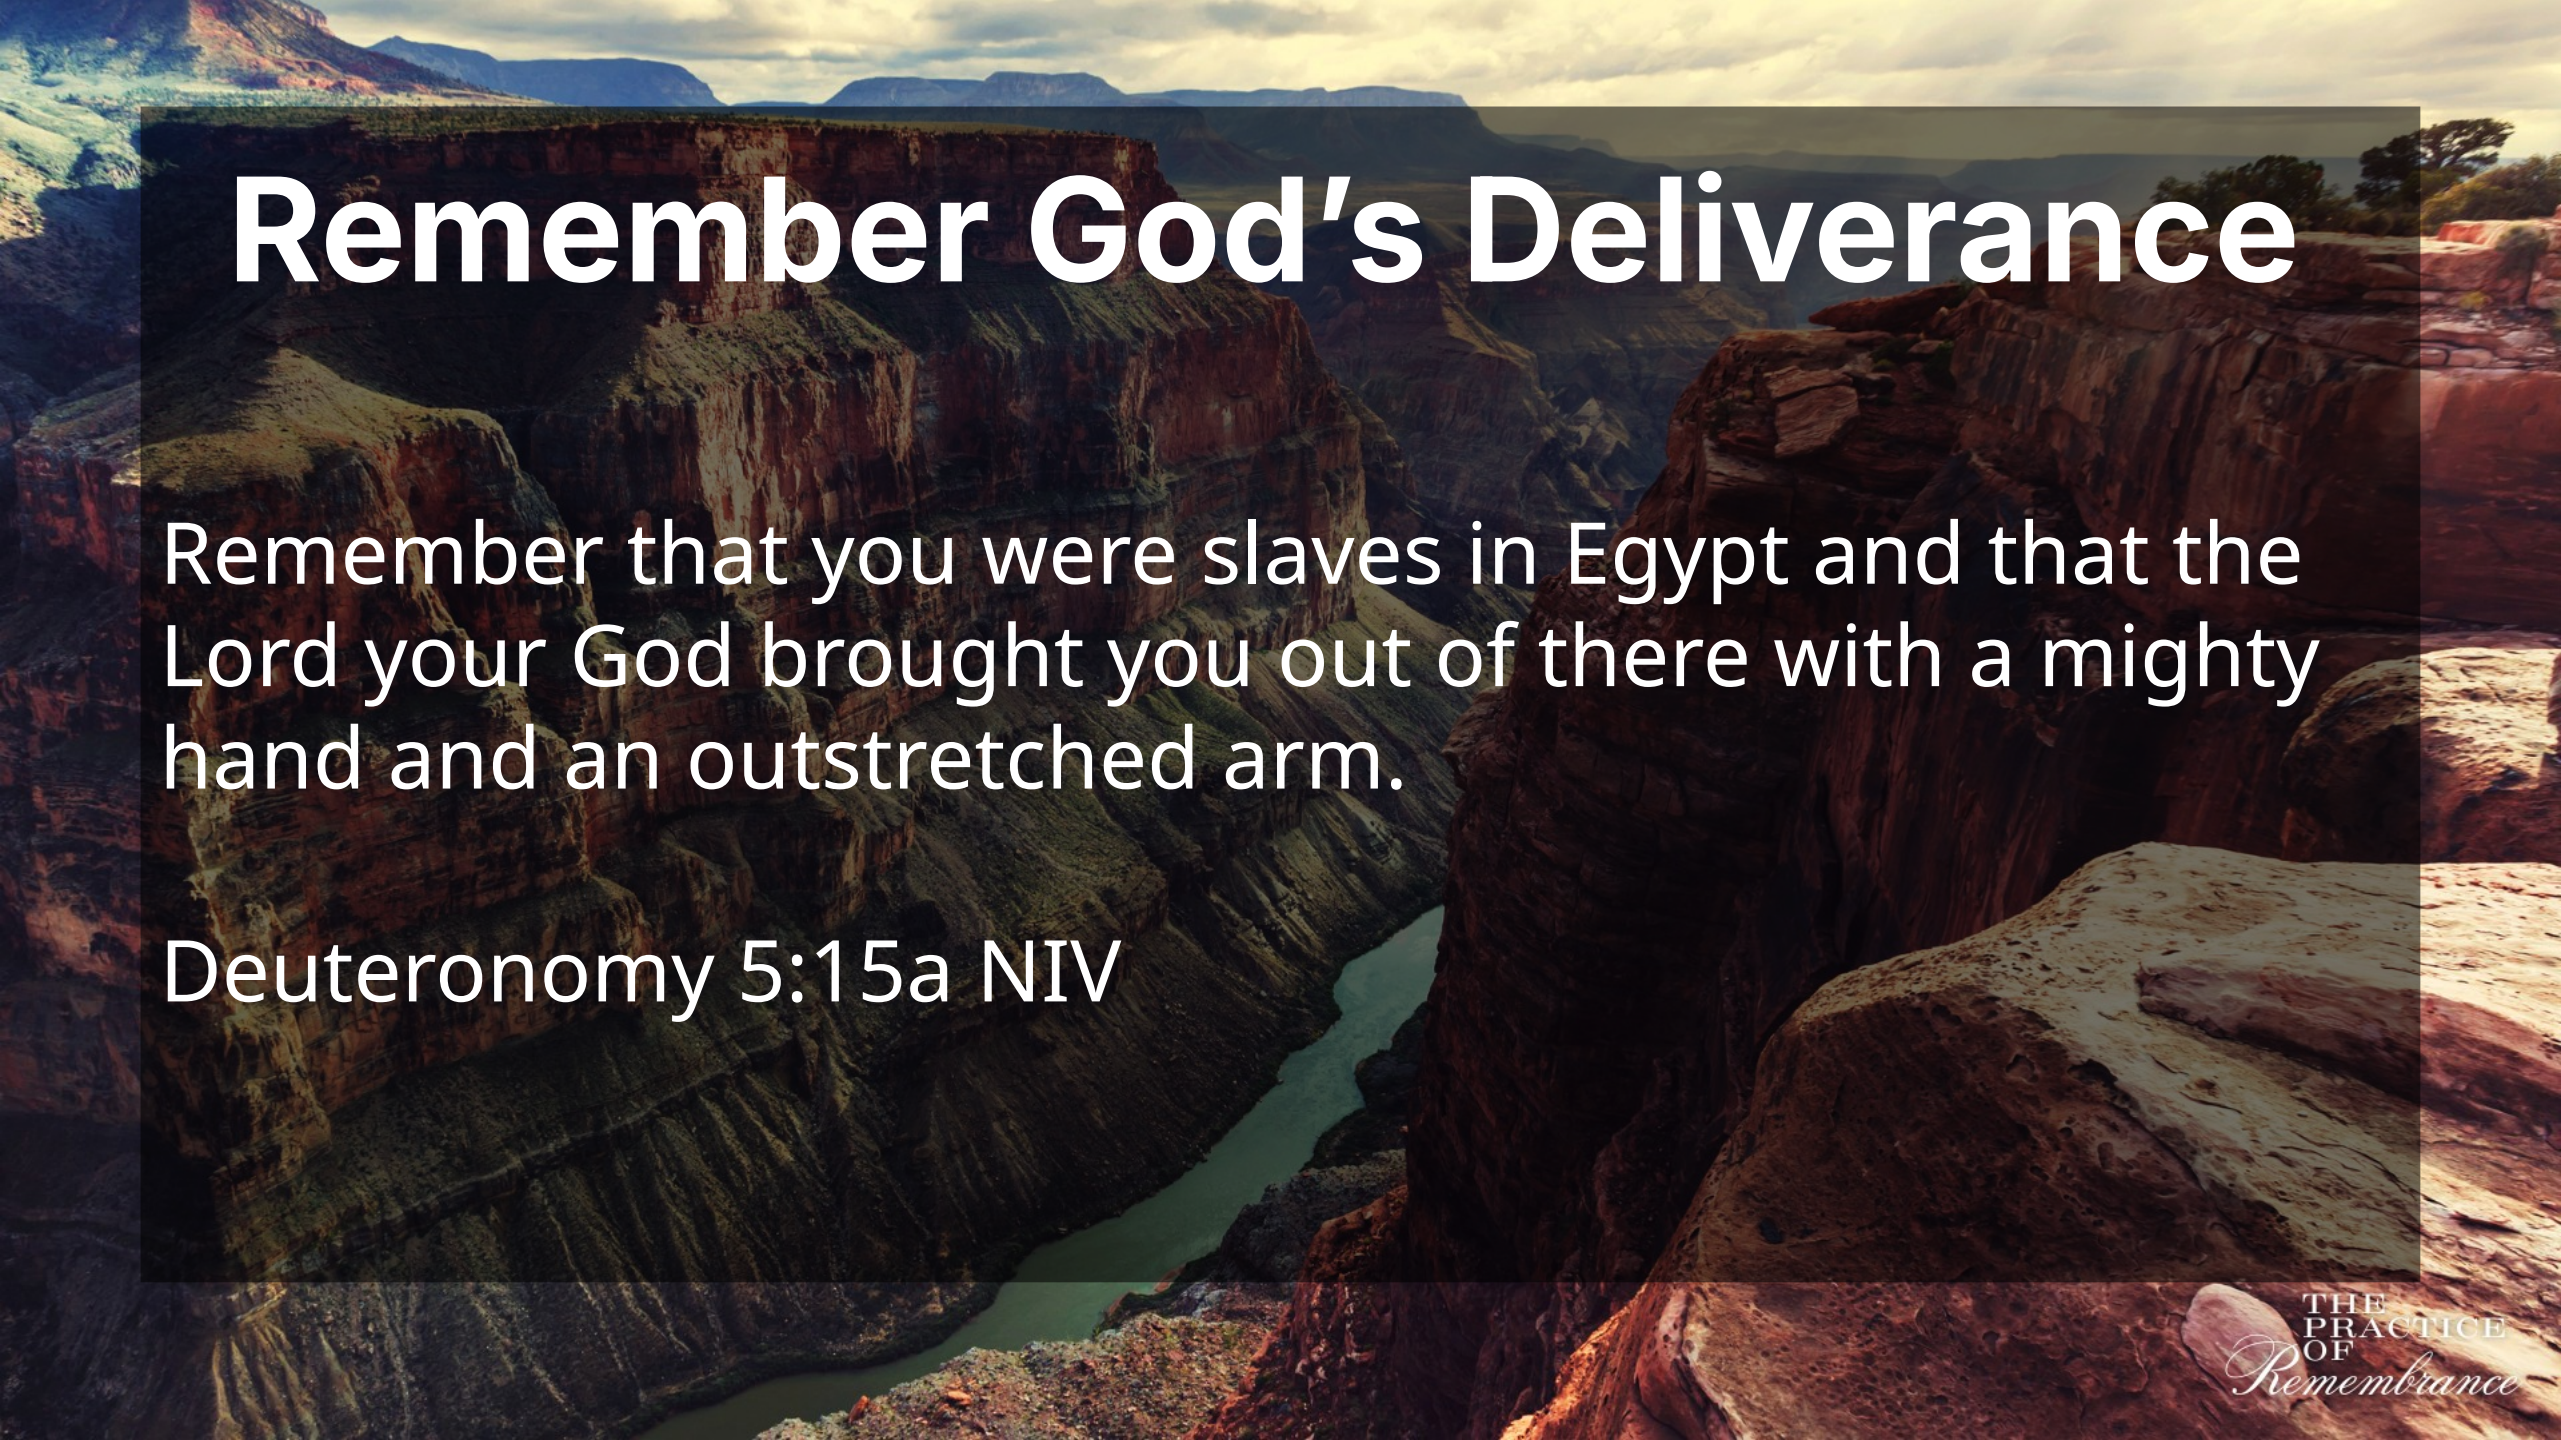

When we take time to remember what God has done, we create space for His manifest presence to renew our hearts and restore our hope in the future.
THE PRACTICE OF Remembrance

Remember God's Provision

You may say to yourself, "My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me." But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your ancestors, as it is today.

Deuteronomy 8:17-18 NIV

Remembering that God is the source of our provision keeps our hearts at peace and our faith expectant.
THE PRACTICE OF Remembrance

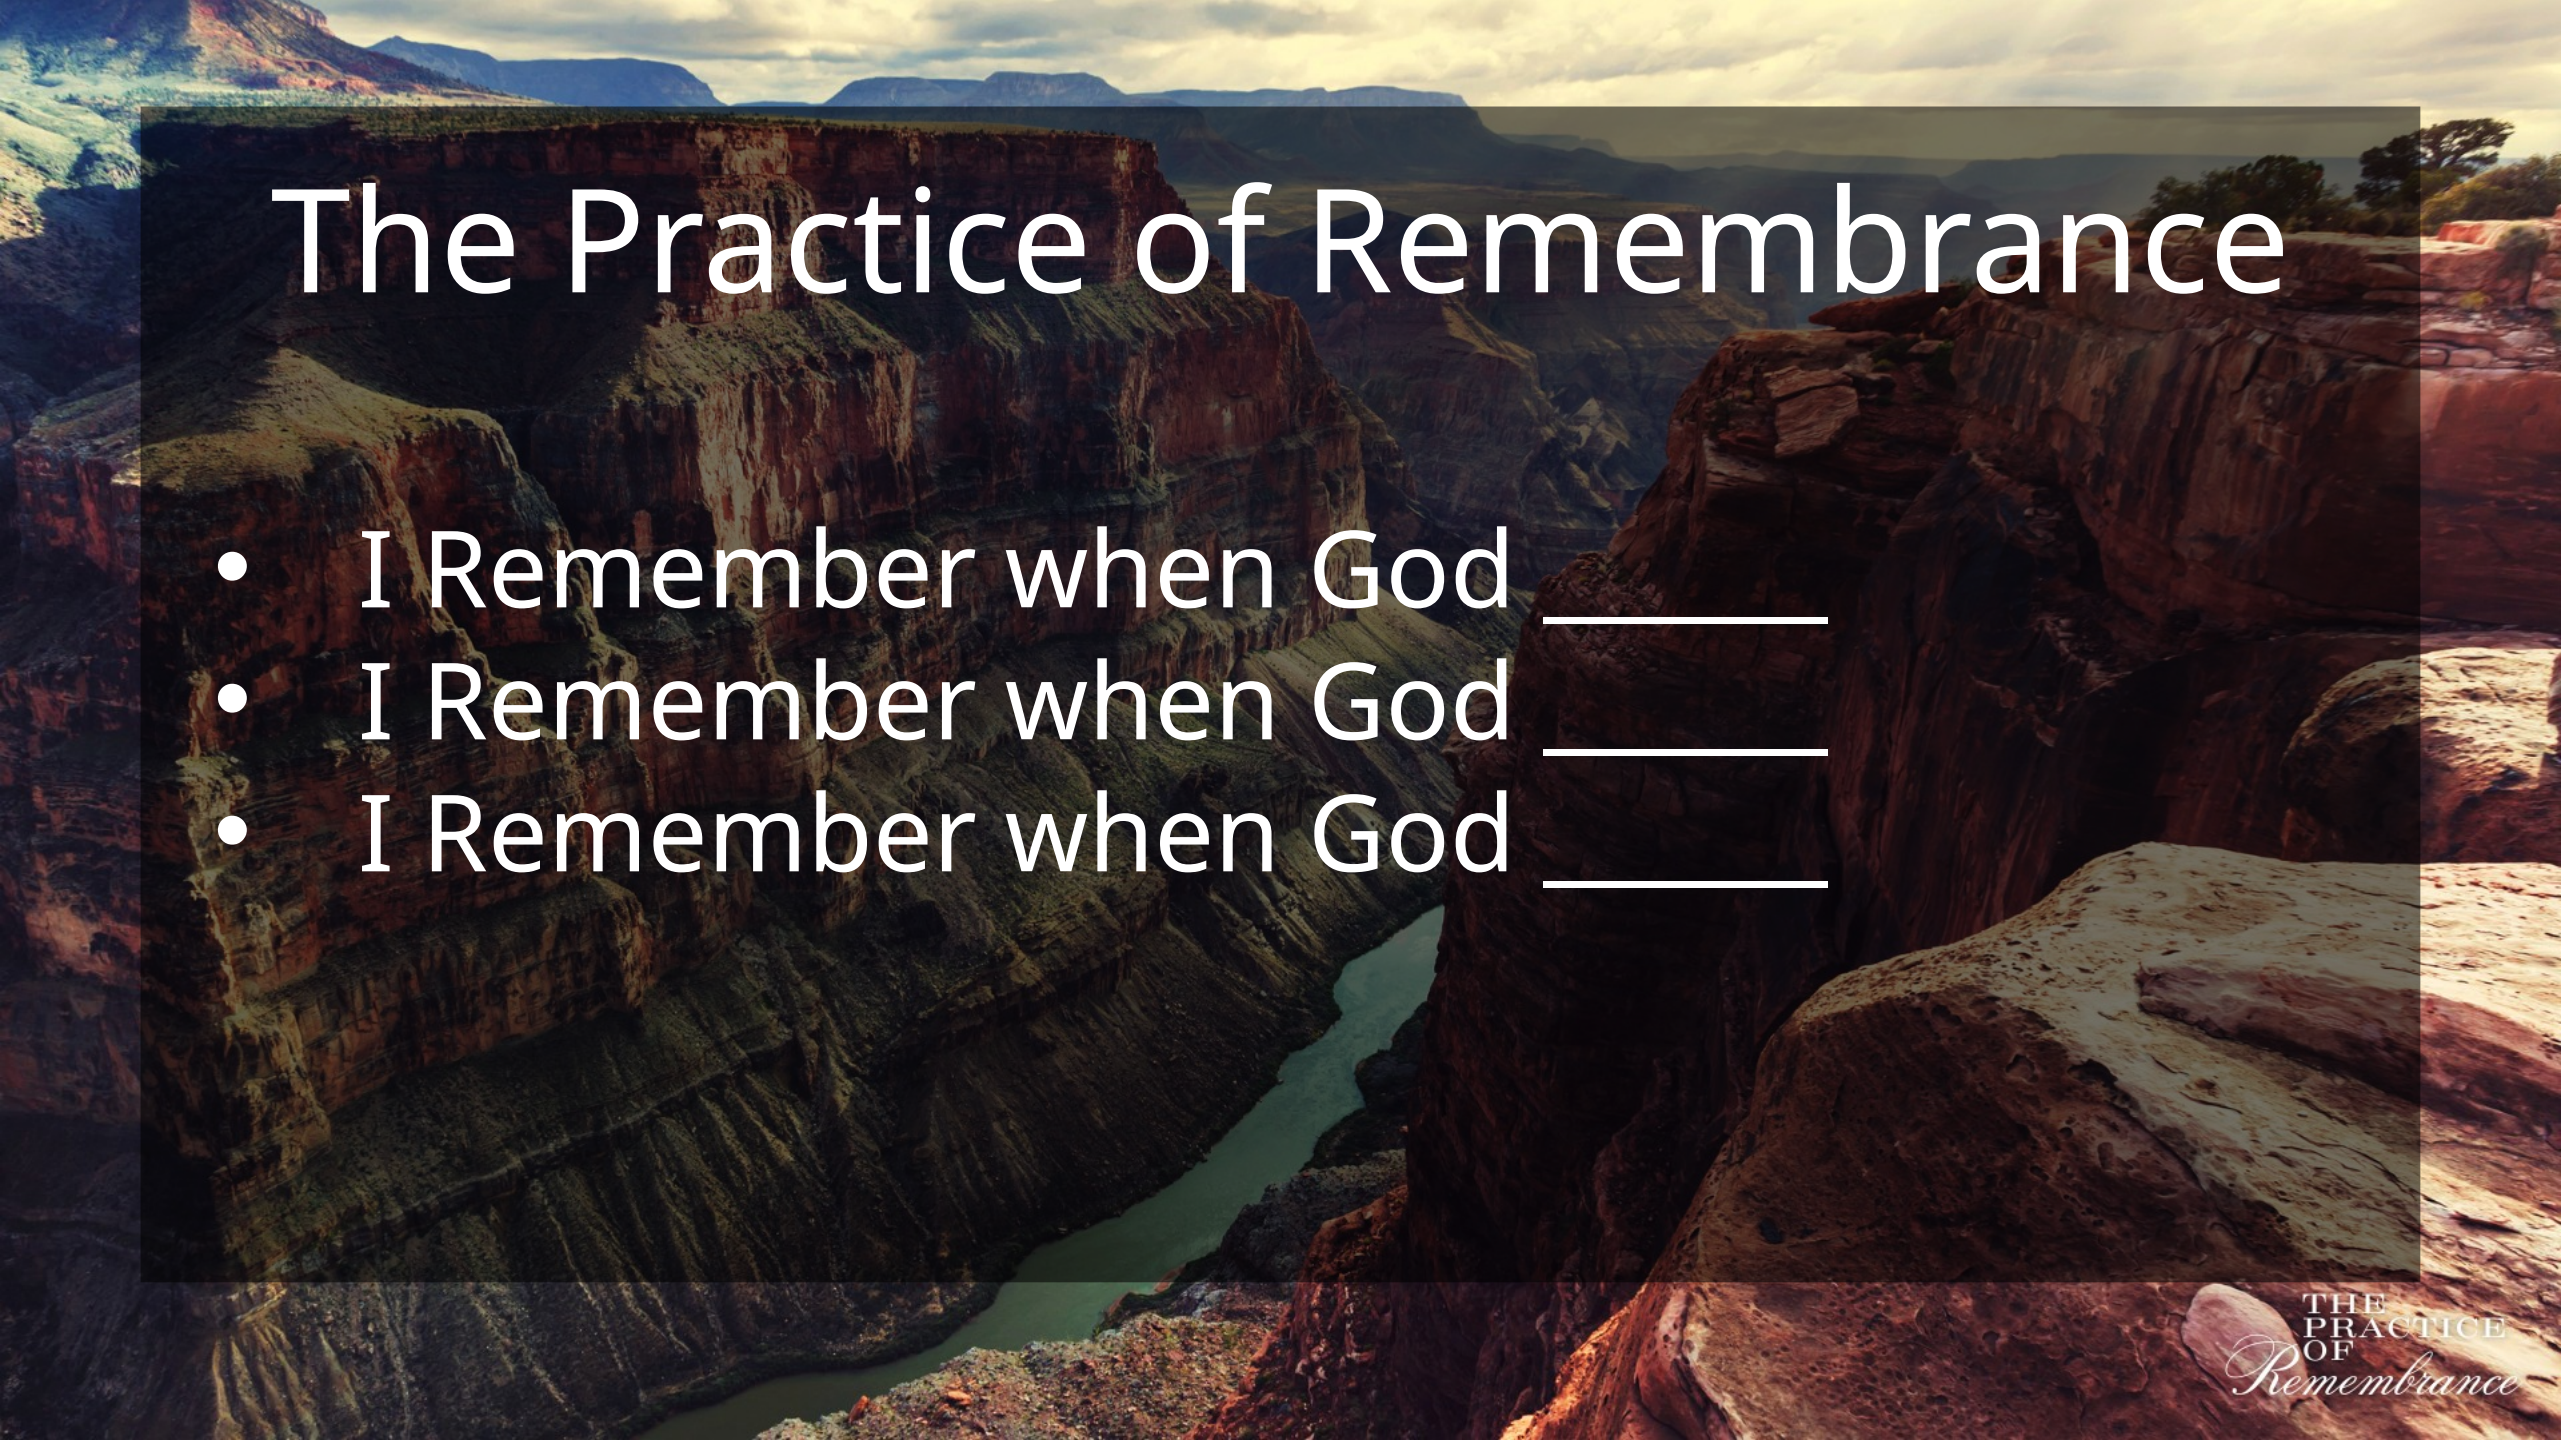

Remember God's Deliverance

Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the Lord your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm.

Deuteronomy 5:15a NIV

THE PRACTICE OF Remembrance

Remembering where God has brought us from keeps our hearts humble, dependent, and thankful.
