

The Christian life is not the “normal” life. The life of faith is a radical adventure. It is a posture of the heart that looks at the Creator and says, “God, I will do what you have called me to do. I will go where you have called me to go. I will give what you have called me to give. God, I just want to be a vessel in your hands.

We are called to hold our earthly comfort loosely so we can build God’s eternal Kingdom permanently.

LIVING IN TENTS AND BUILDING ALTARS

By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

Hebrews 11:8-10

The Call:
Stepping into the Unknown

“In my opinion—and my experience—there is no greater adventure than following Jesus! You’ll go unanticipated places and do inconceivable things with unexpected people—never a dull moment.”
- Mark Batterson

By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place...
obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going.
Hebrews 11:8

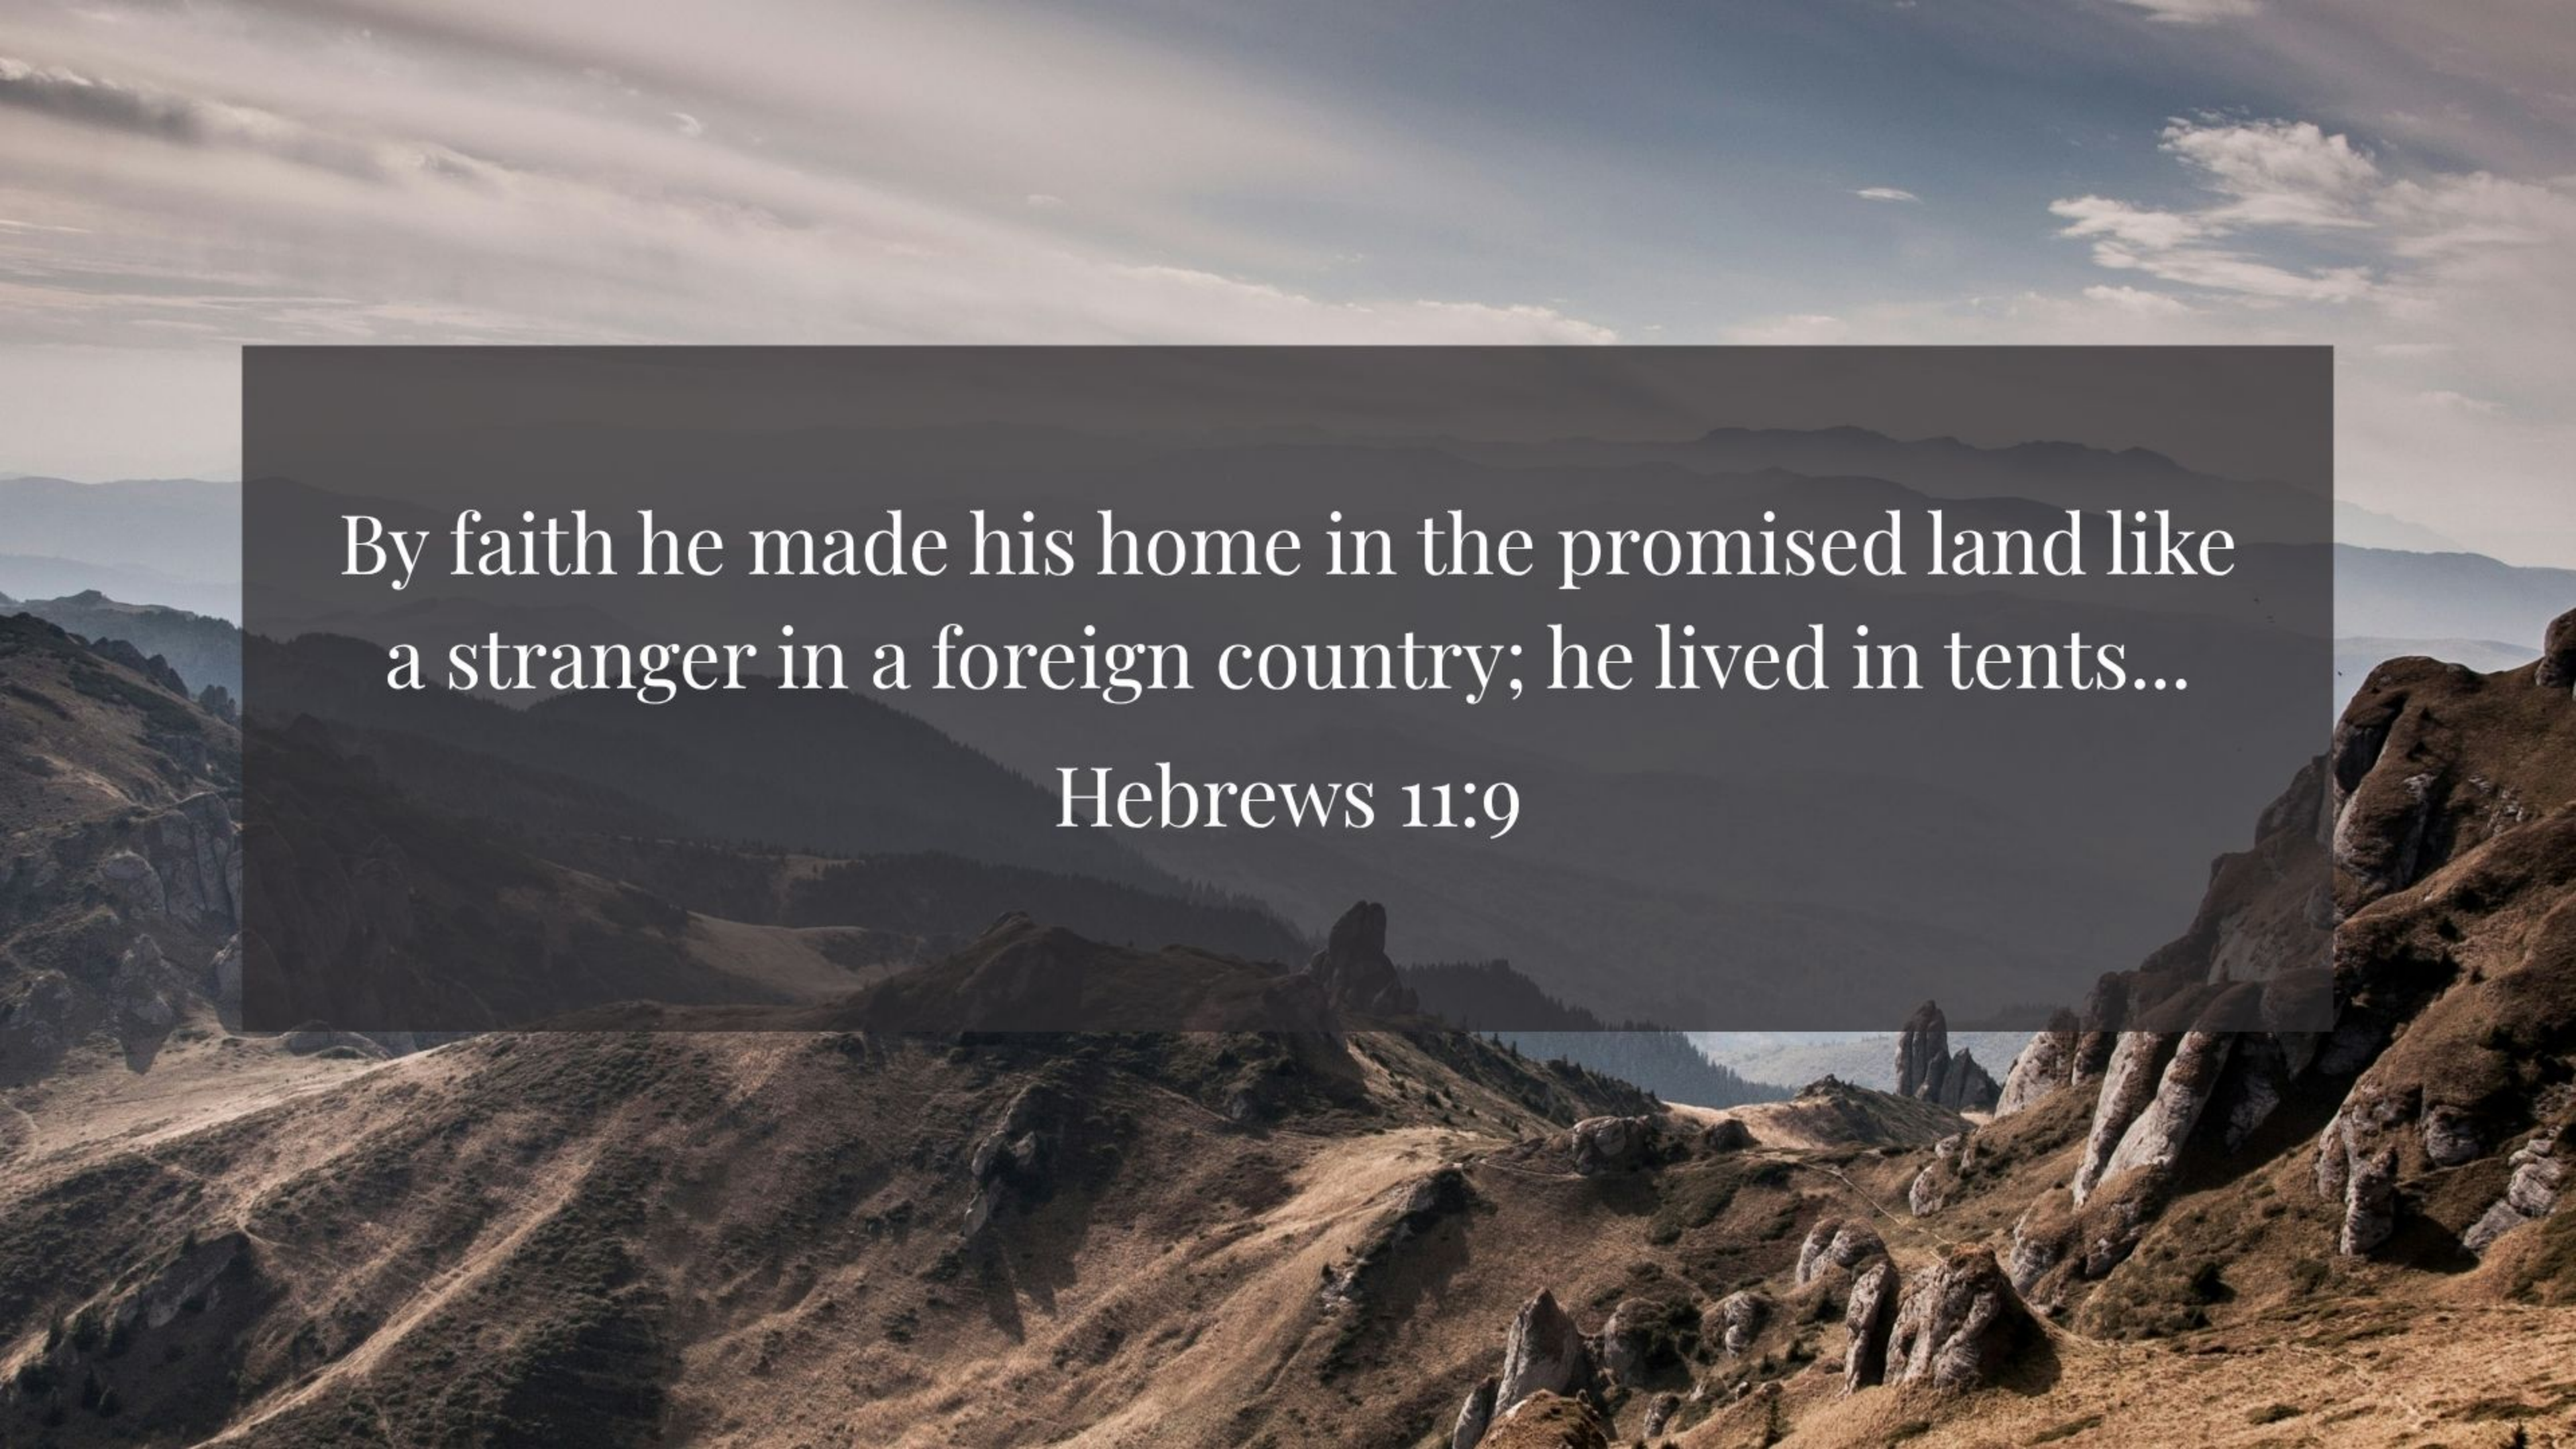

Now the Lord said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you.”
Genesis 12:1

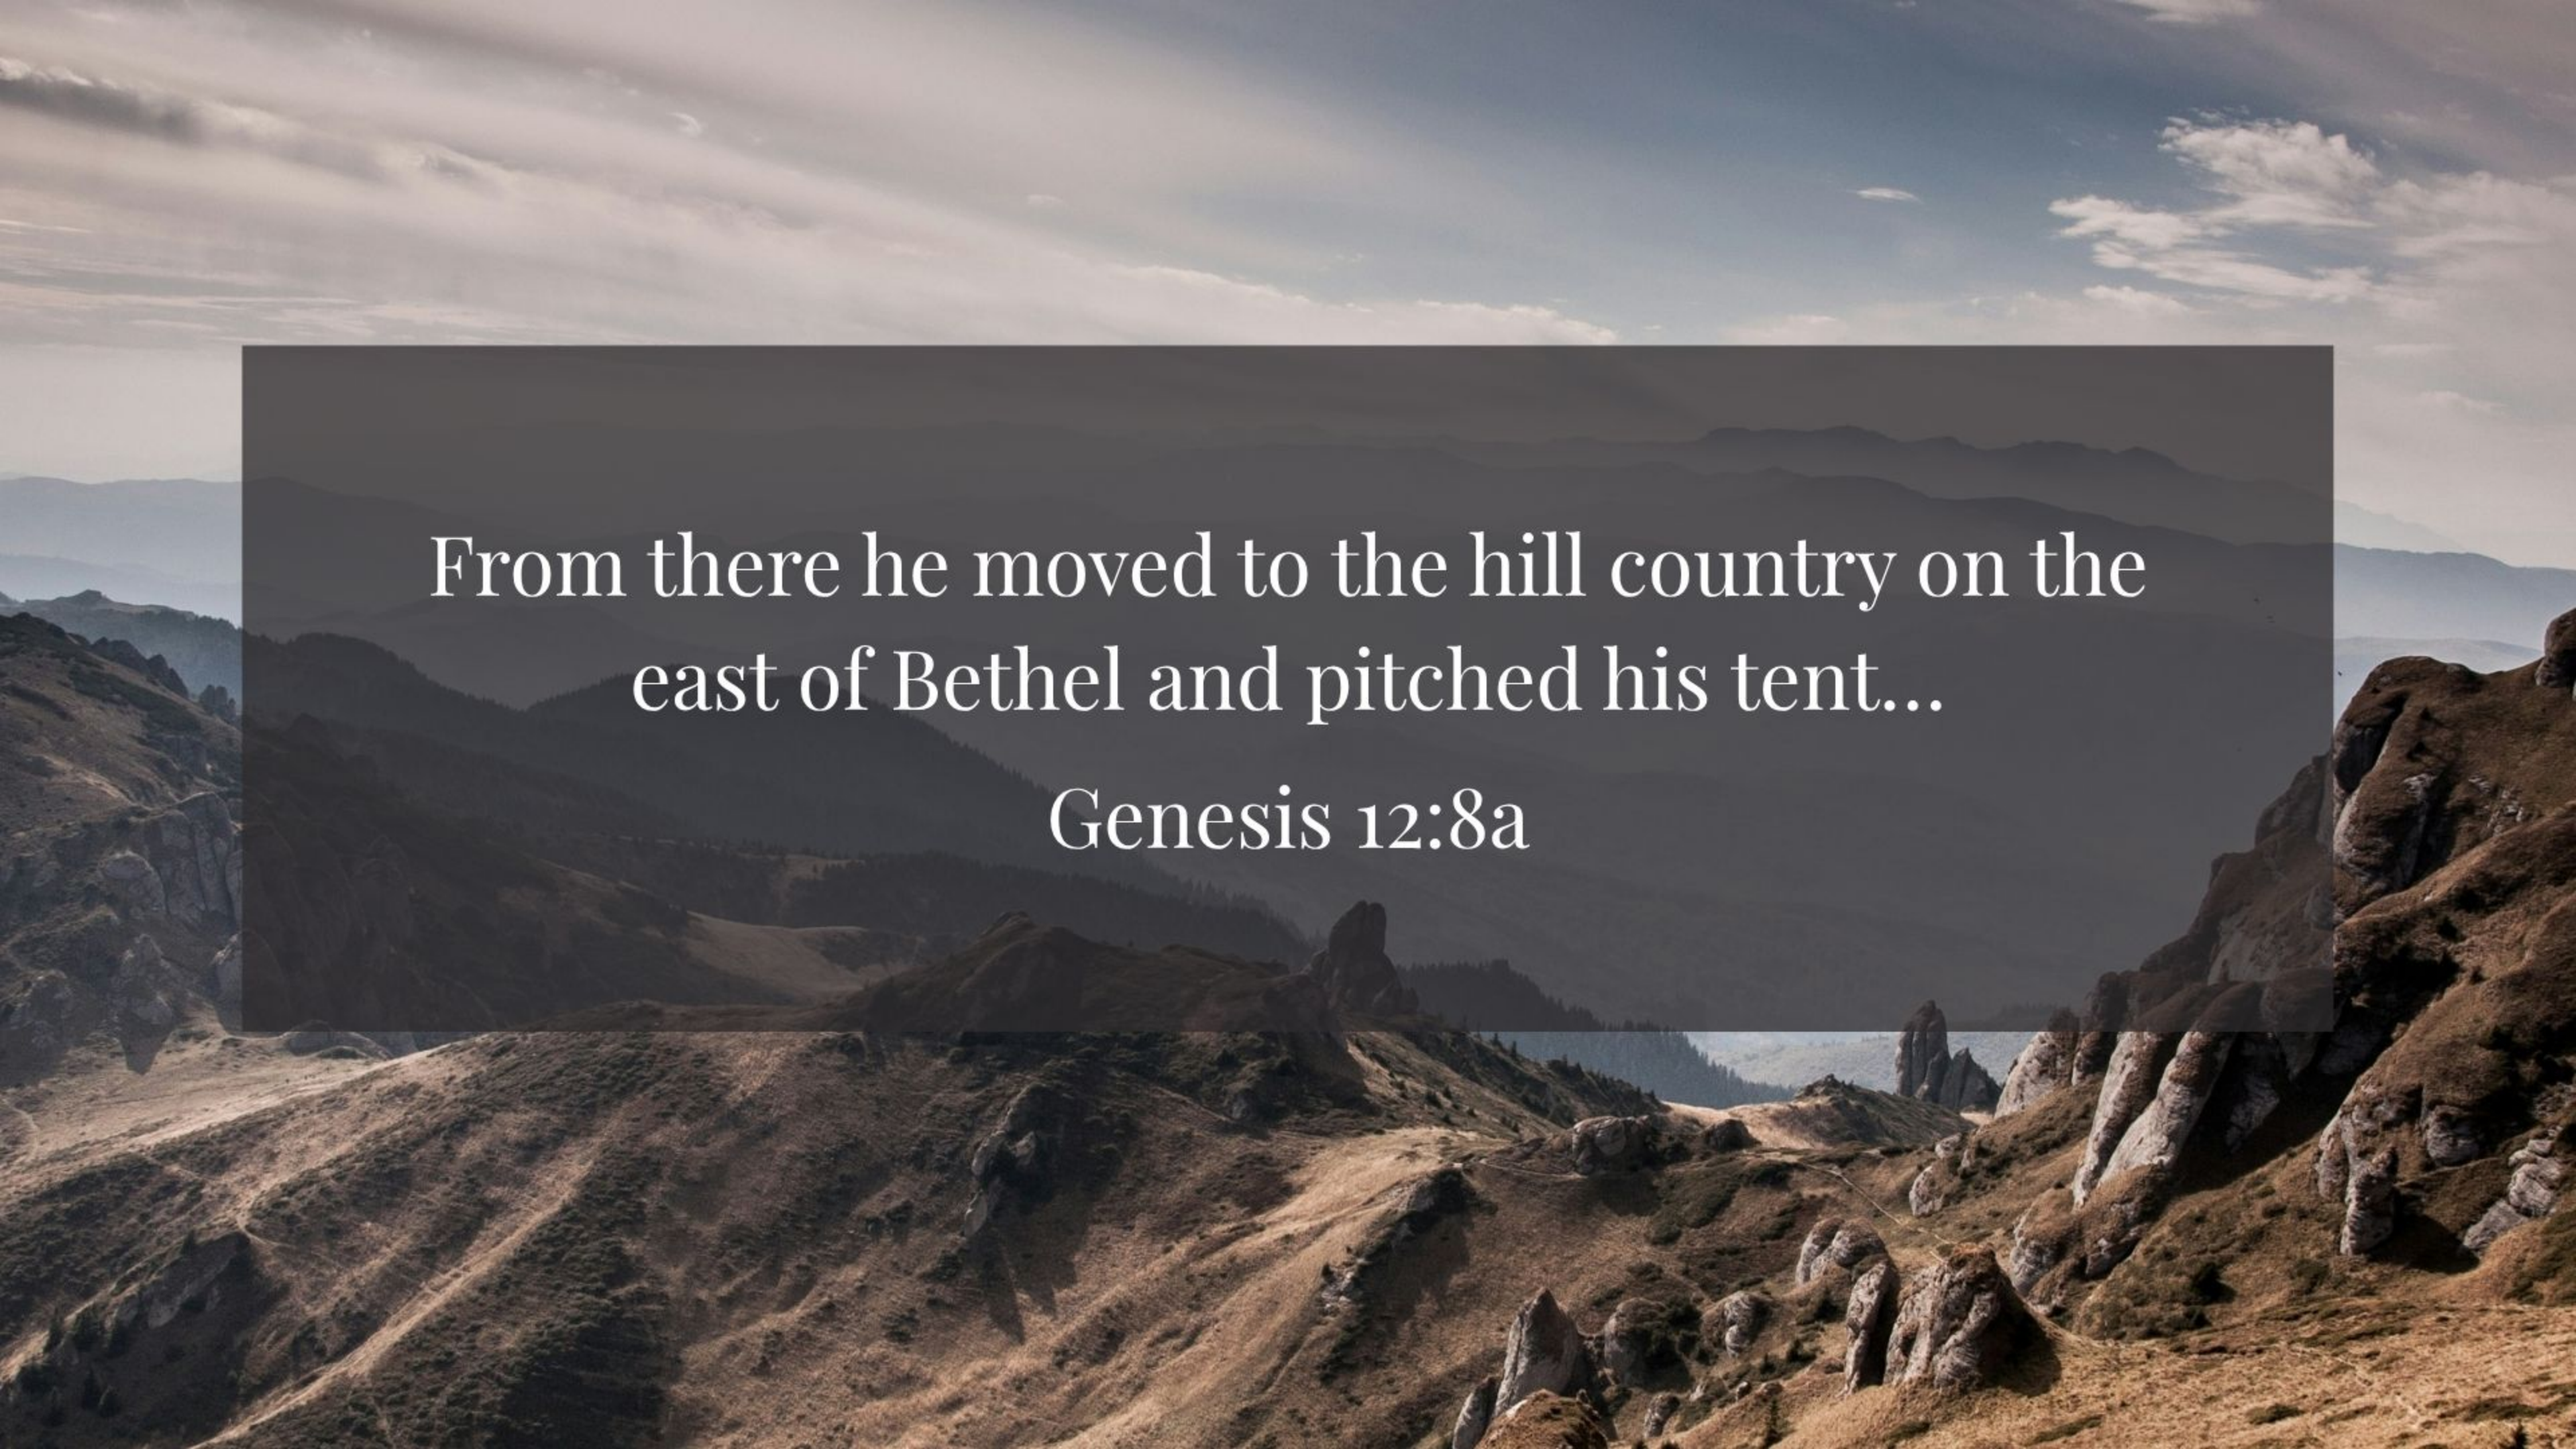

Security 2
Entrance for all customers
Gates B C
Terminal 1
Gates E F
Terminal 2
All
UNITED Economy

STAR ALLIANCE
UNITED

The Tent: Embracing the Discomfort

By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents...
Hebrews 11:9

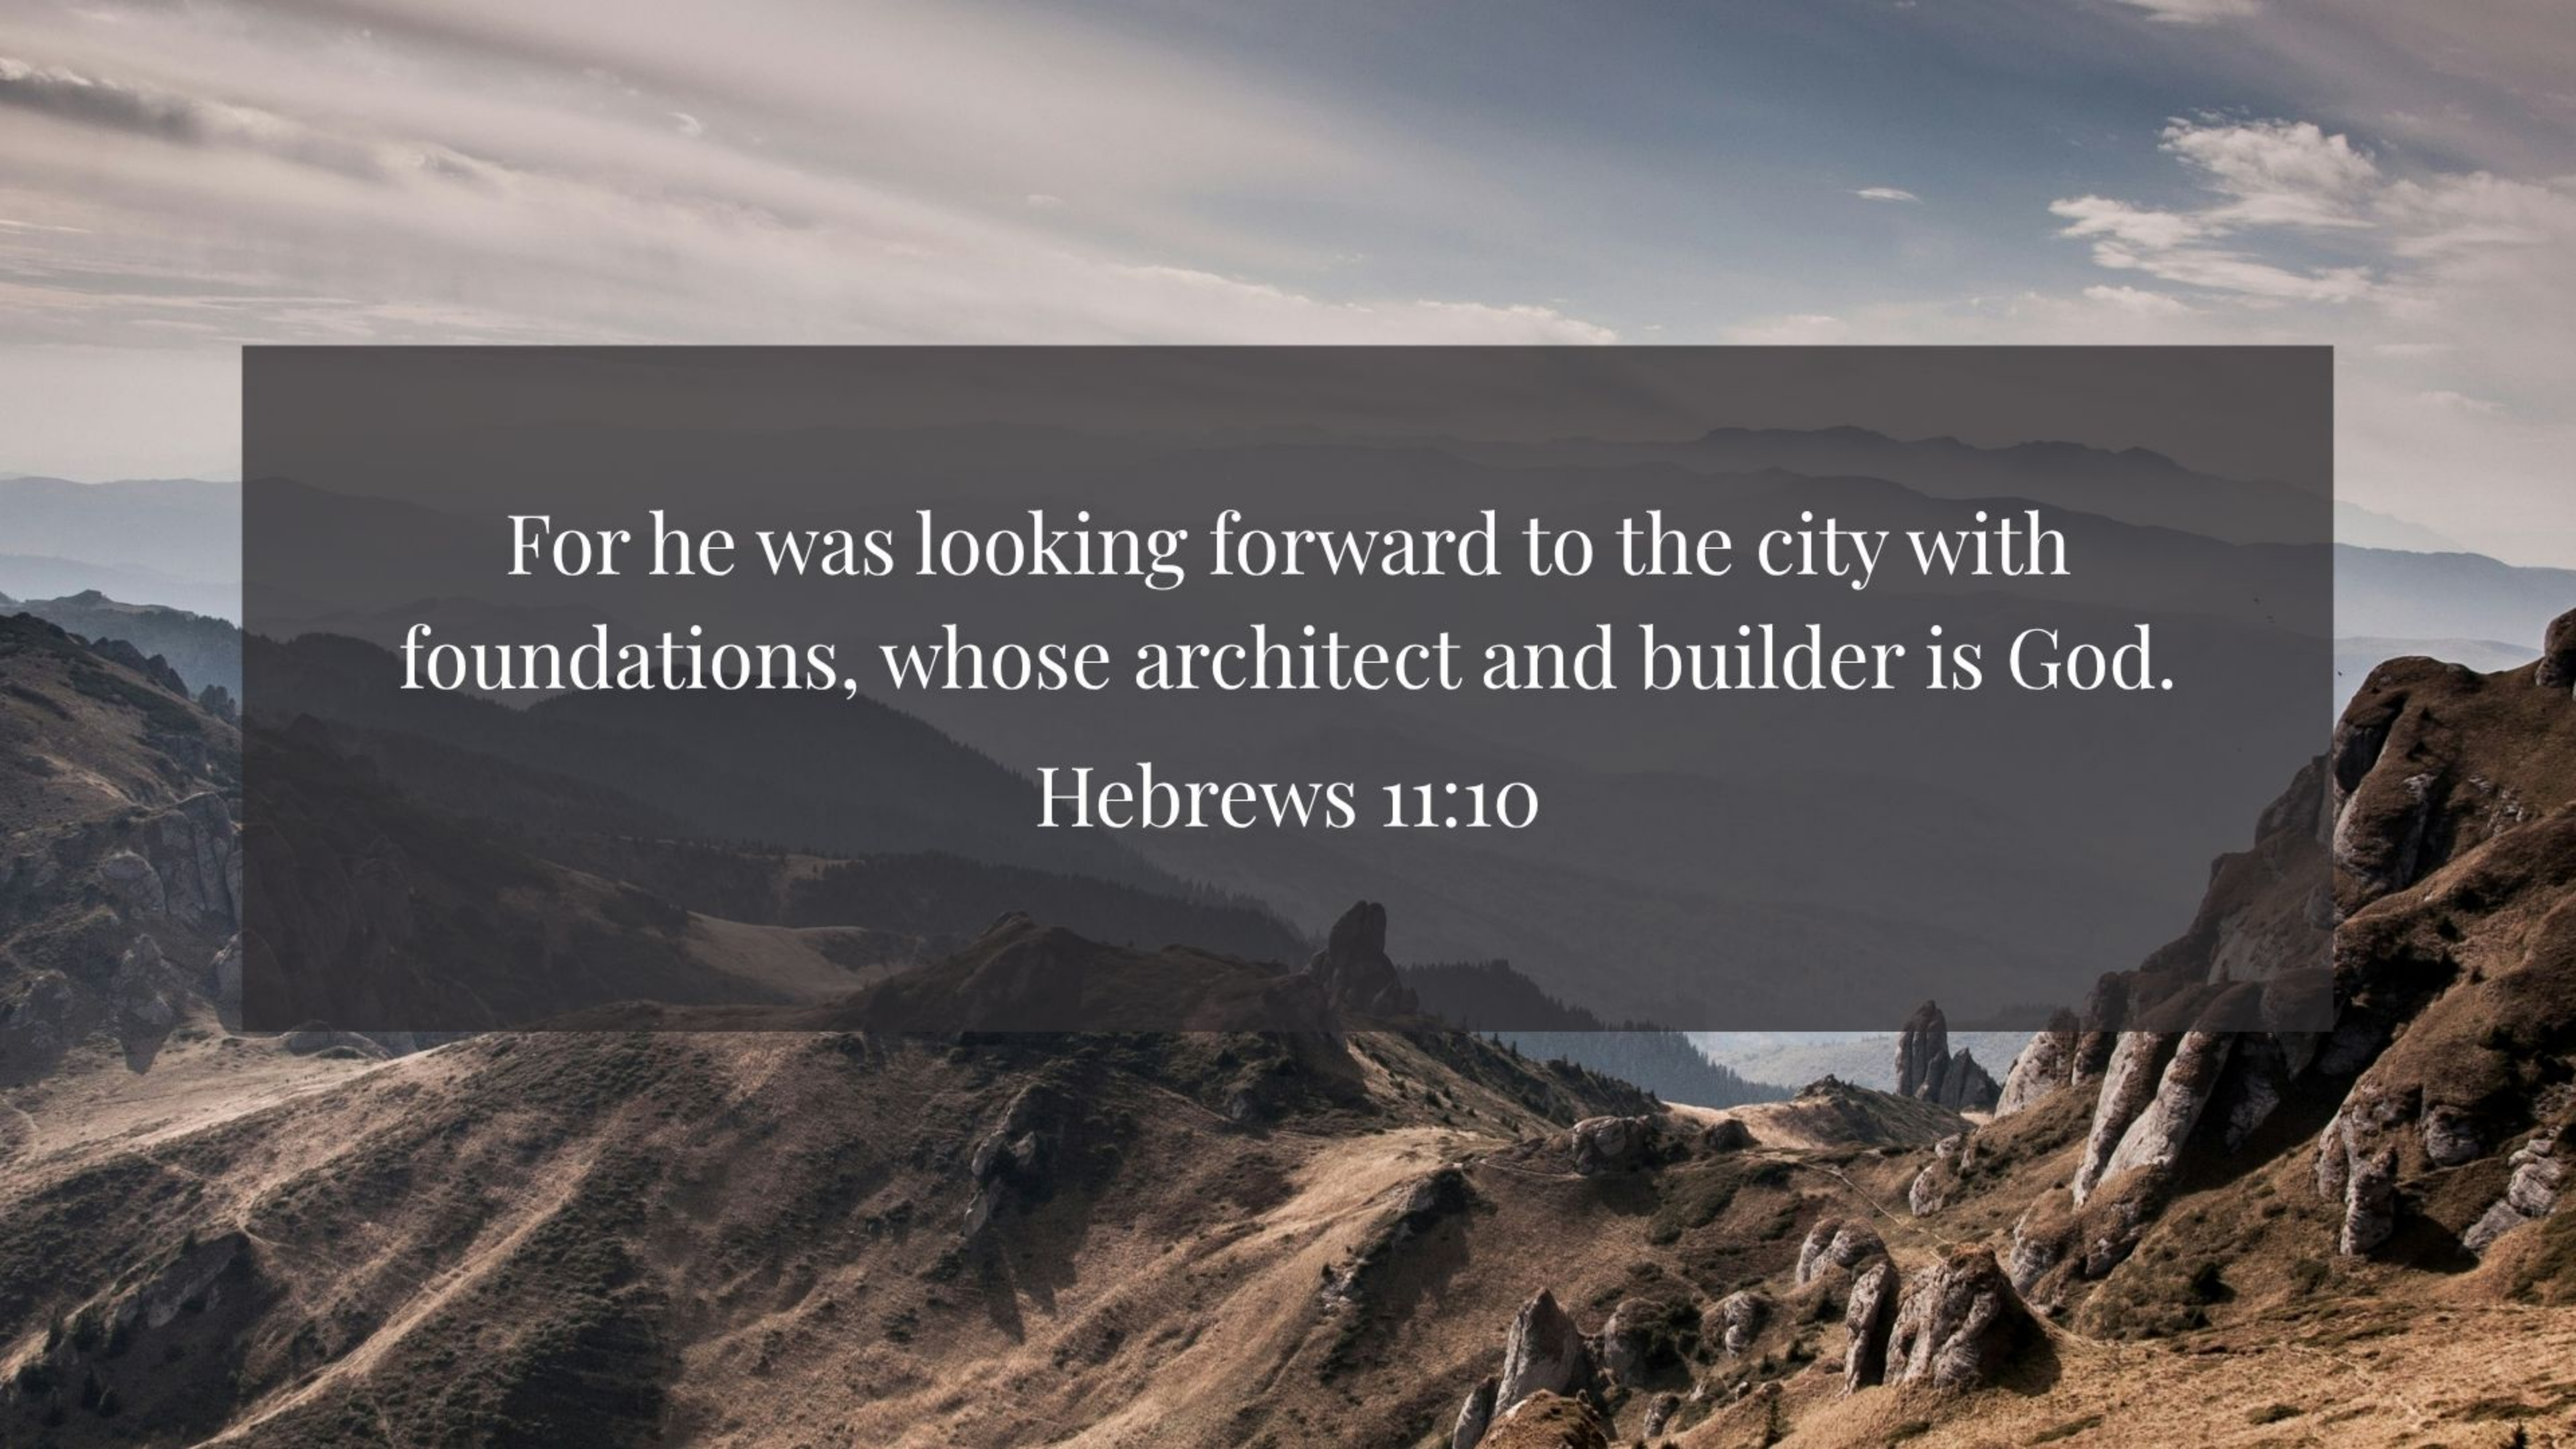

From there he moved to the hill country on the east of Bethel and pitched his tent...
Genesis 12:8a

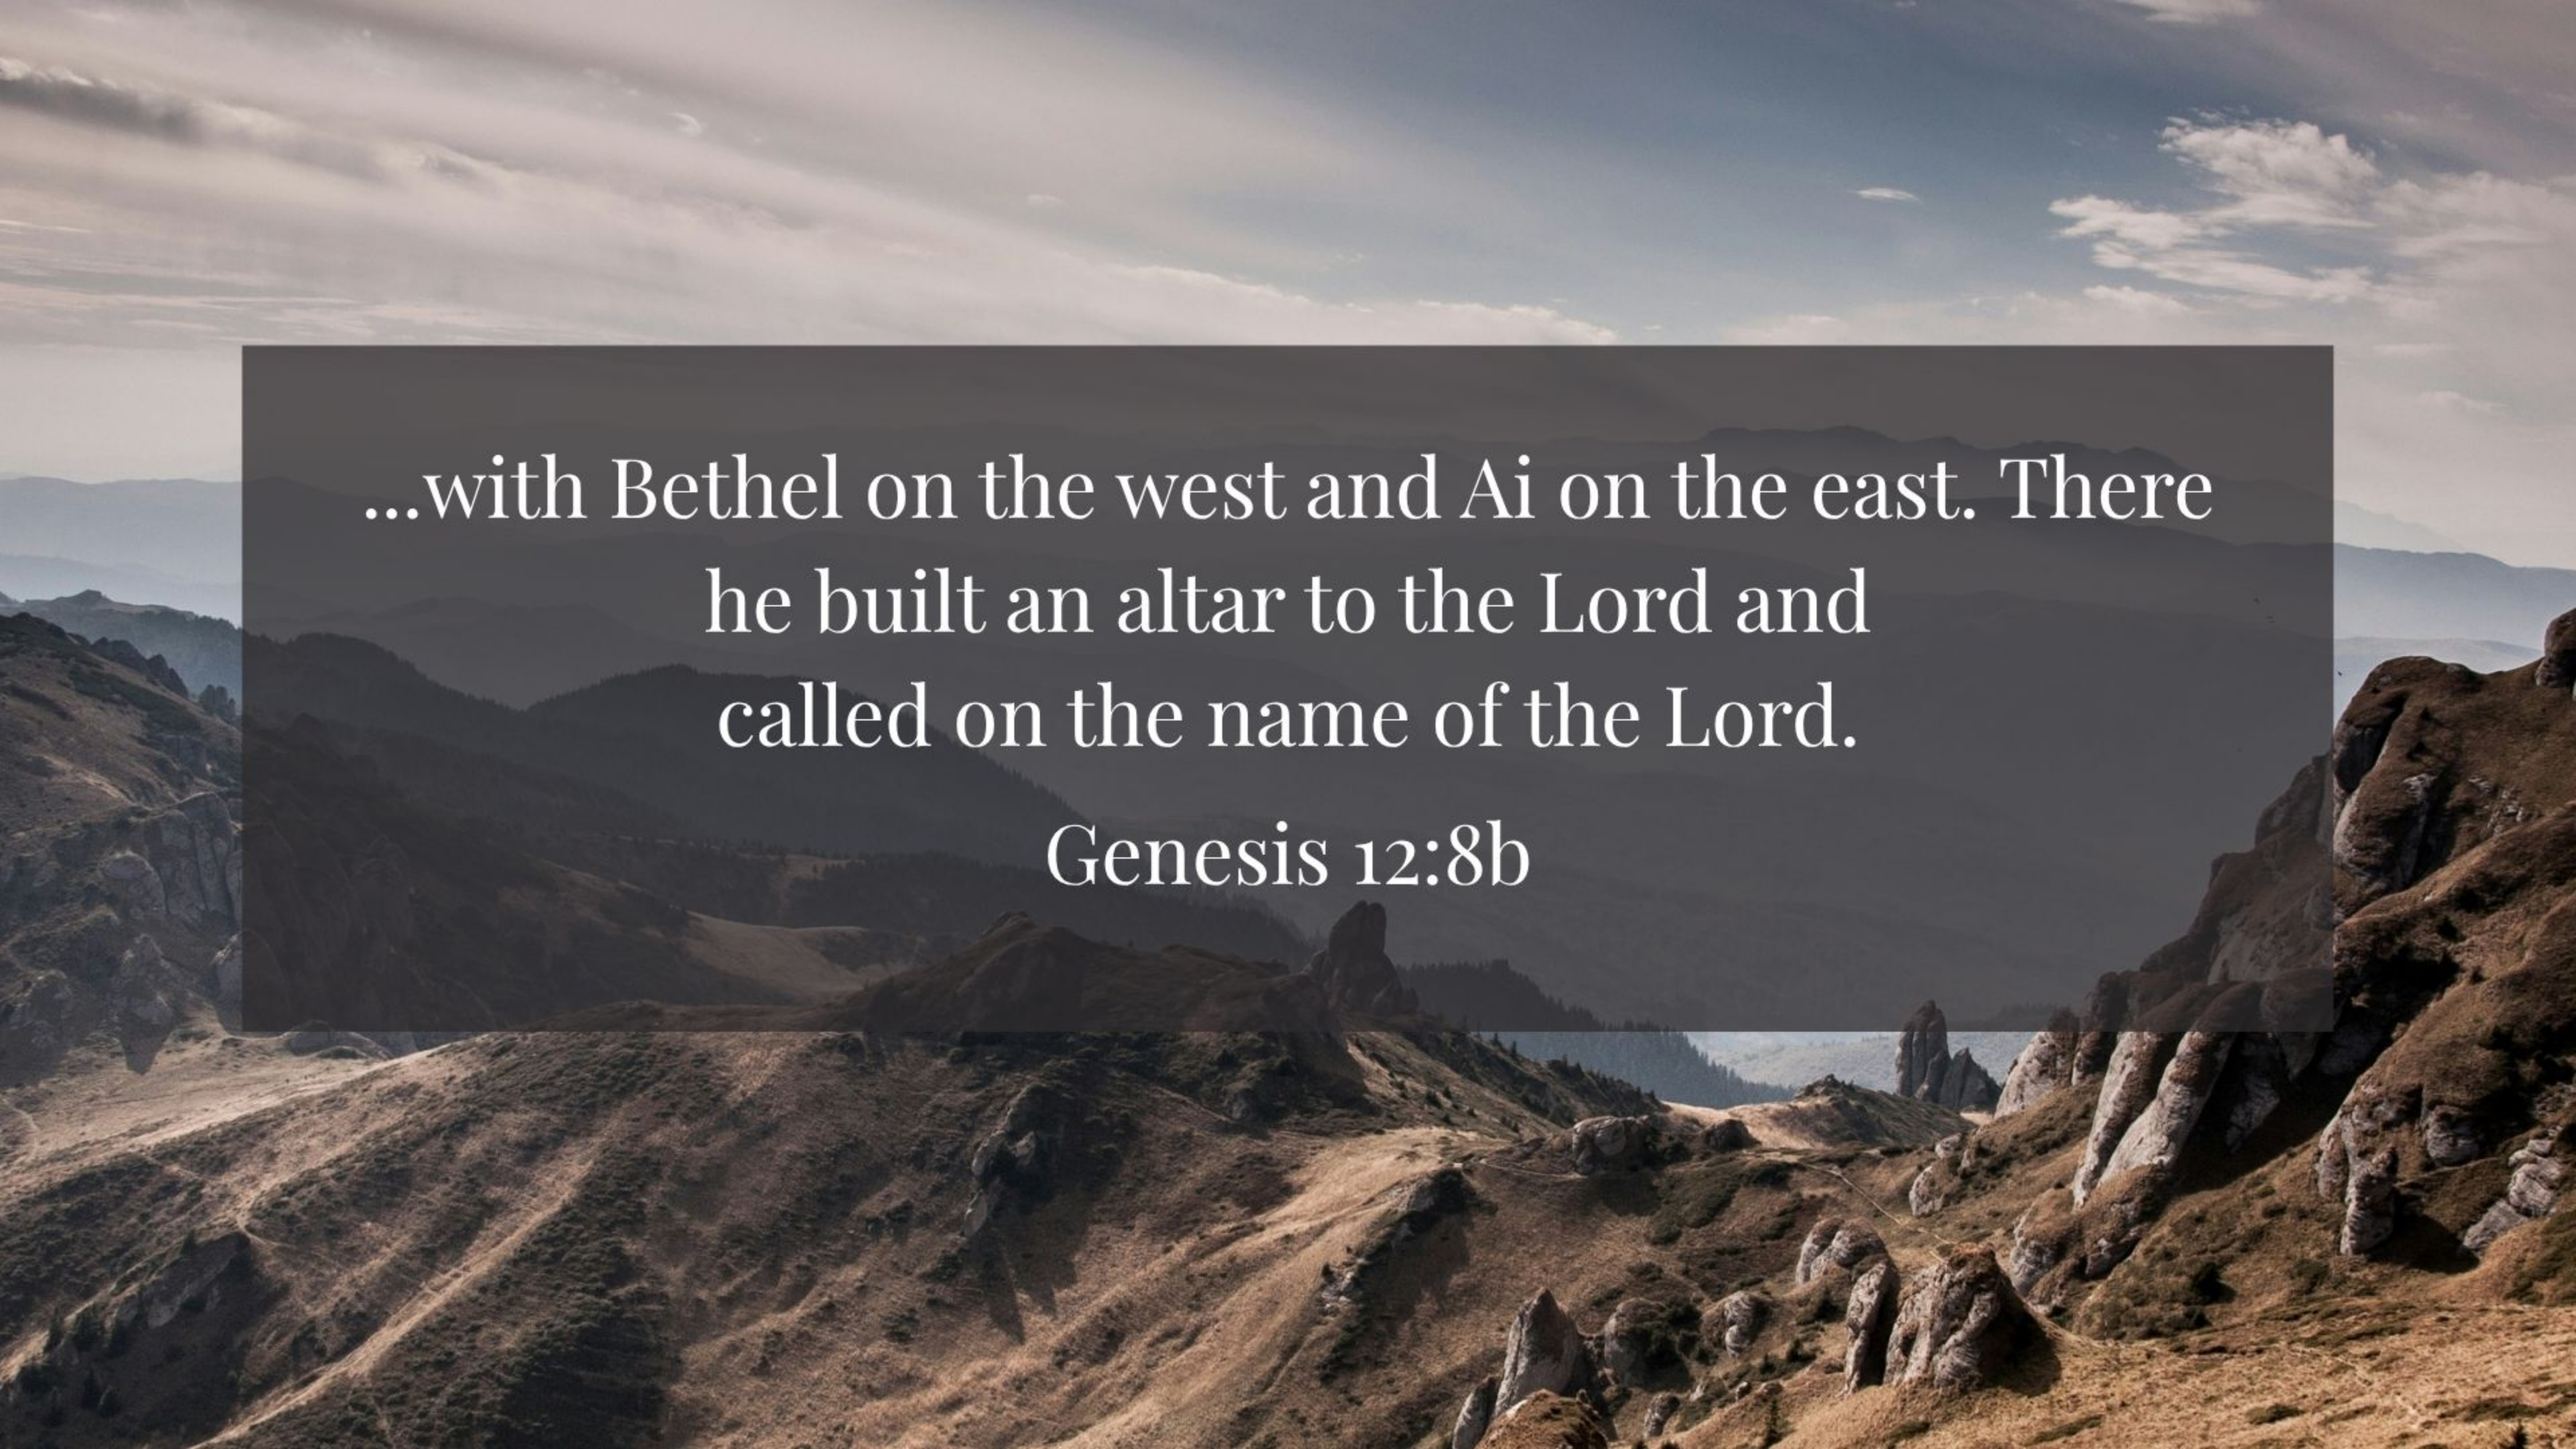

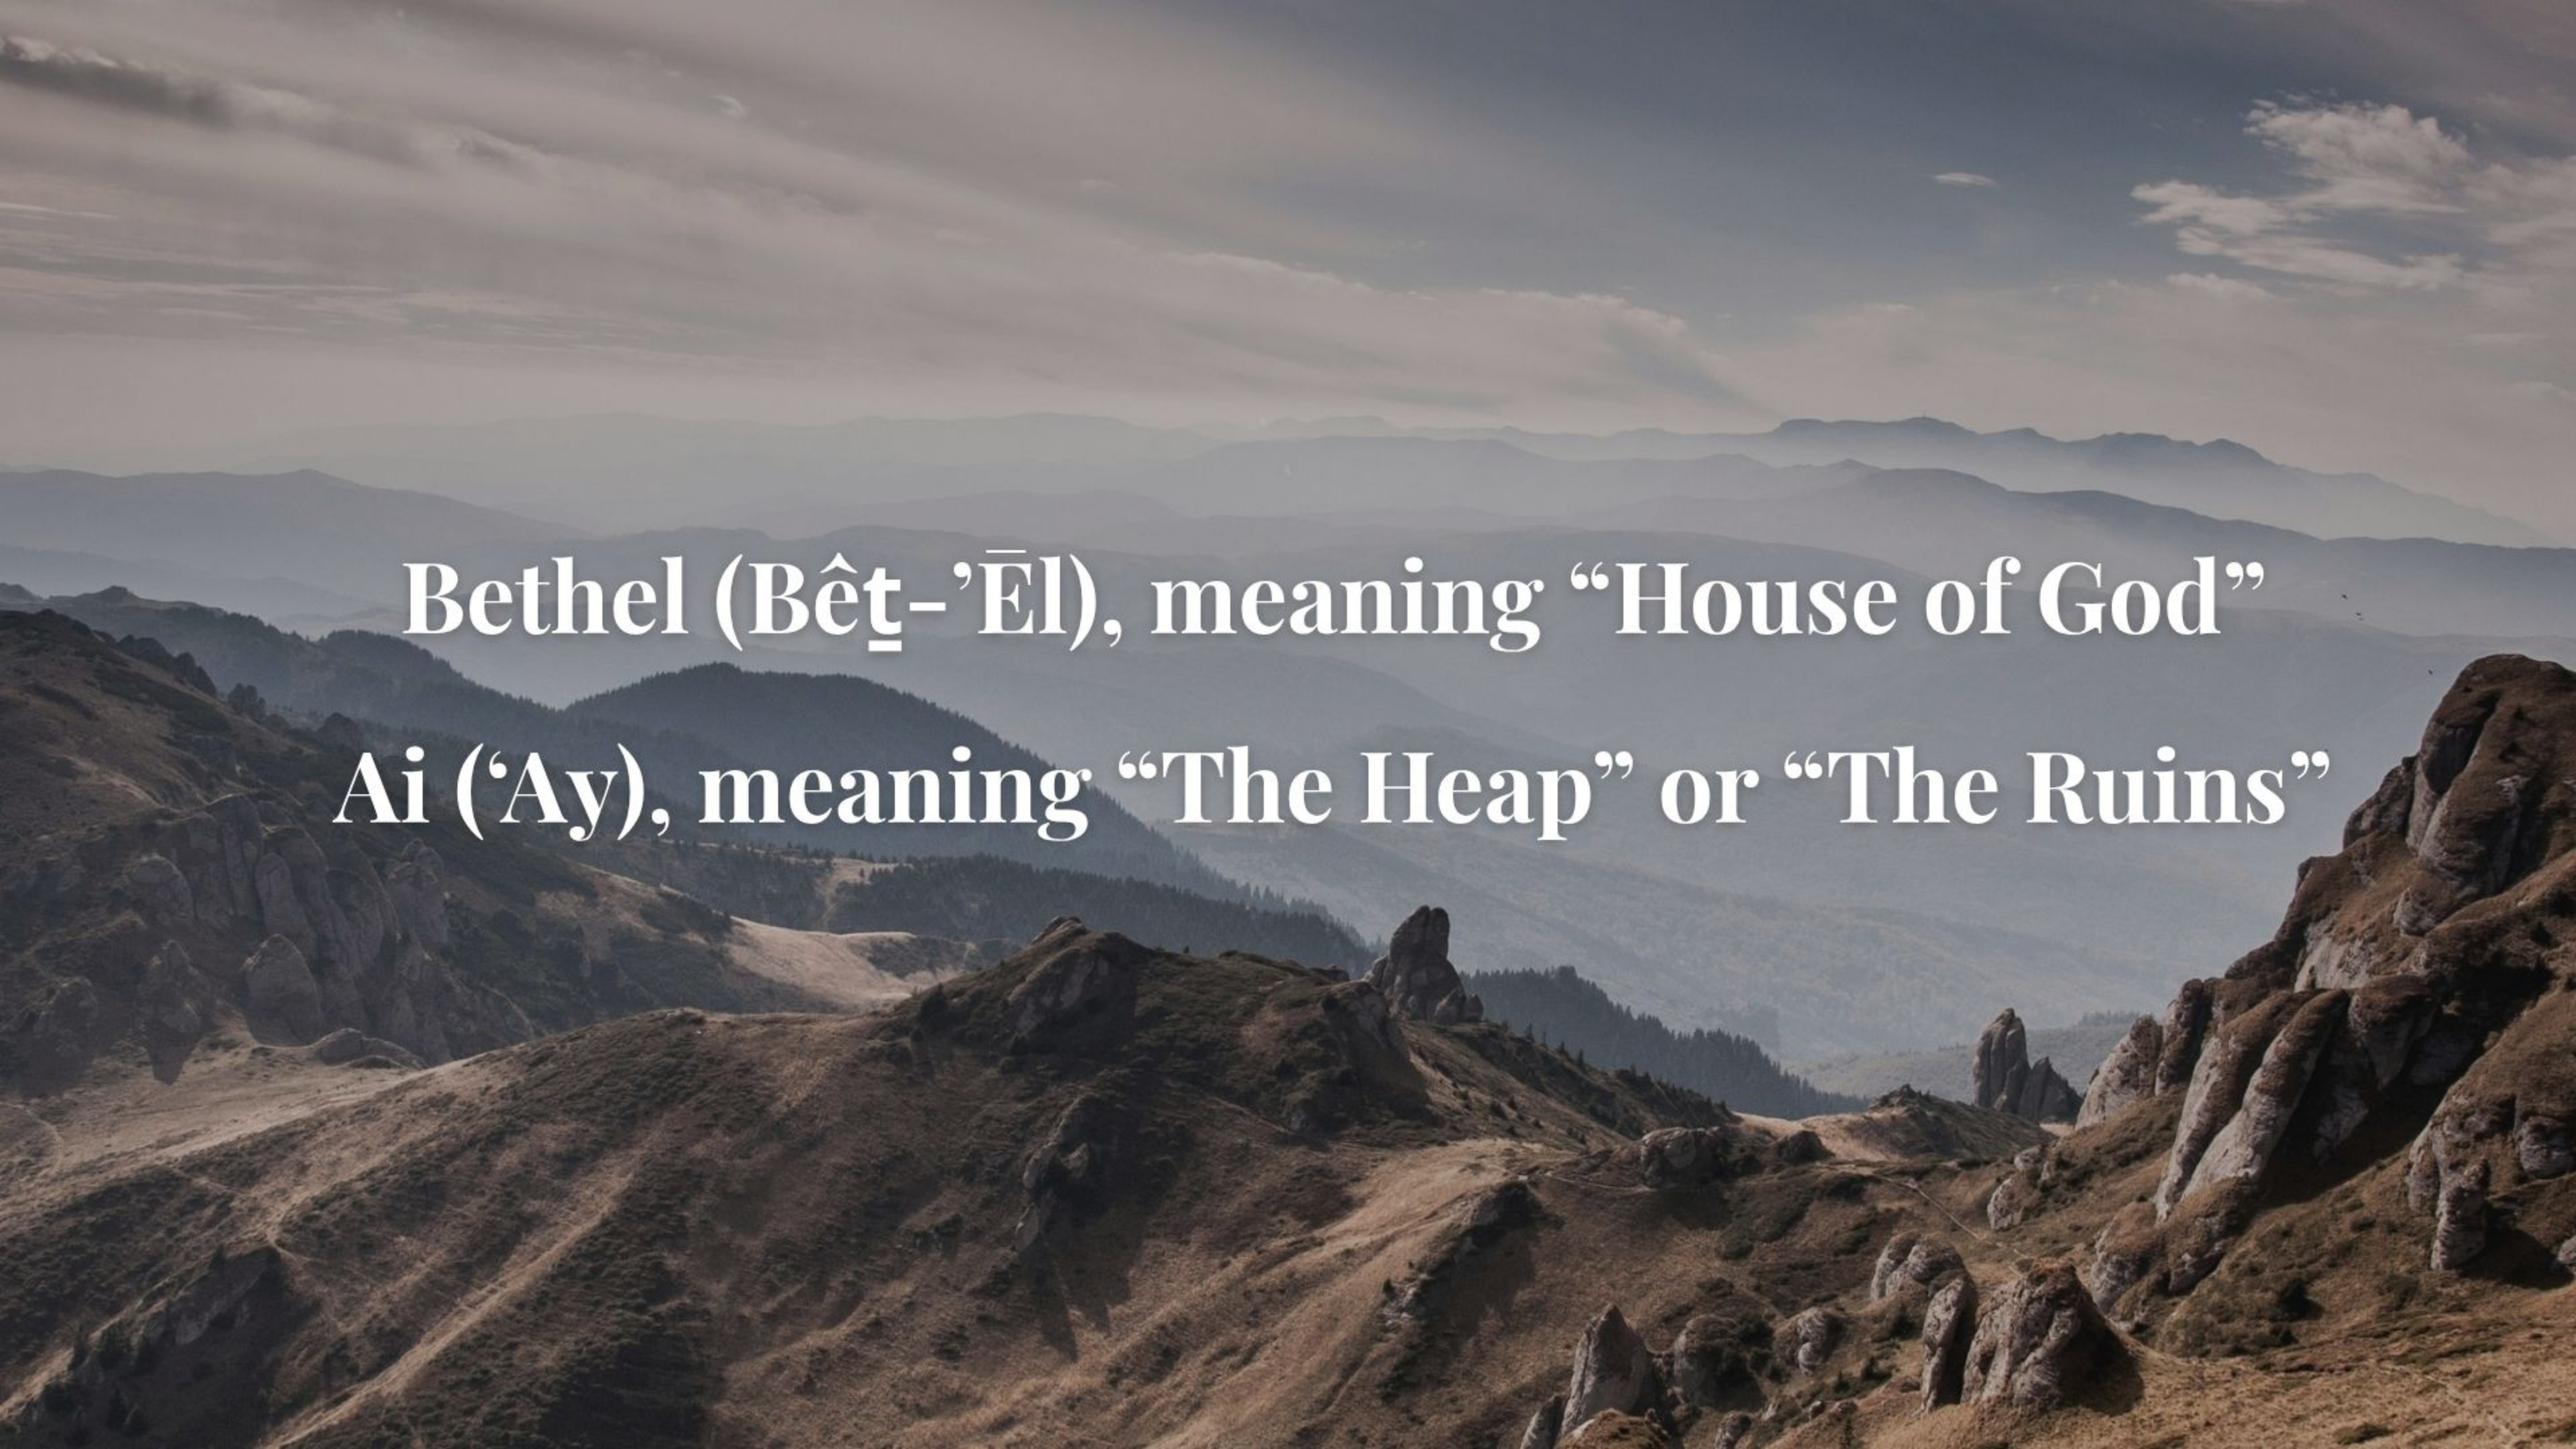

“Once I arrive, then I’ll obey.”
“If I can just get through this busy season, then I’ll start serving.”
“If I can just get my finances perfectly stable, then I’ll give.”

The Altar: Building for Eternity

For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.
Hebrews 11:10

...with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the Lord and called on the name of the Lord.
Genesis 12:8b

Bethel (Bêṯ-ʾĒl), meaning “House of God”
Ai (ʿAy), meaning “The Heap” or “The Ruins”

