2 Corinthians 9:6–10 (NLT)member this—a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. [7] You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don’t give reluctantly or in response to pressure. “For God loves a person who gives cheerfully.” [8] And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. [9] As the Scriptures say,

“They share freely and give generously to the poor.
Their good deeds will be remembered forever.”

[10] For God is the one who provides seed for the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will provide and increase your

[7] On the first day of the week, we gathered with the local believers to share in the Lord's Supper. Paul was preaching to them, and since he was leaving the next day, he kept talking until midnight. [8] The upstairs room where we met was lighted with many flickering lamps. [9] As Paul spoke on and on, a young man named Eutychus, sitting on the windowsill, became very drowsy. Finally, he fell sound asleep and dropped three stories to his death below.

[10] Paul went down, bent over him, and took him into his arms.
"Don't worry," he said, "he's alive!" [11] Then they all went back upstairs, shared in the Lord's Supper, and ate together.
Paul continued talking to them until dawn, and then he left. [12]
Meanwhile, the young man was taken home alive and well, and everyone was greatly relieved.
