The Power of God's Promises

Part 2

3 By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence. 4 And because of his glory and excellence, he has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share his divine nature and escape the world's corruption caused by human desires. In view of all this, make every effort to respond to God's promises.

2 Peter 1:3–5a (NLT)

The Promises of God deeply empower us to daily walk closely with Jesus, experience His nature flowing through us, and protect us from the moral rot of this world and our own sinful nature.

The Promises of God

Adapted from George Mueller's
The Book of Bible Promises

My prayer is that this book of promises will help you learn, believe, and proclaim the promises of God. As you do, I pray you will experience the life and grace of Jesus flowing through your thoughts, emotions, and daily life.

May these promises empower you to walk closely with Jesus, to share in His divine nature, and to stand strong against the moral decay of this world and the pull of your own sinful nature. For as Scripture says,

By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence. And because of his glory and excellence, he has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share his divine nature and escape the world's corruption caused by human desires. In view of all this, make every effort to respond to God's promises.
2 Peter 1:3–5a (NLT)

These promises are not abstract ideas but divine instruments—channels of grace—through which we actually participate in the life of God. They enable us to become what He has called us to be. My hope is that as you meditate on these great and precious promises, they would ignite your faith, anchor your soul, and propel you forward into the fullness of Christ.

This booklet is adapted from the enduring work of George Muller, a man whose life of radical trust in God's promises sustained thousands of orphans and fueled global missions. Mueller lived with unwavering dependence on God---day by day, hour by hour, believing that every promise in Scripture was trustworthy and sufficient. His original compilation, The Book of Bible Promises, has inspired generations. This updated edition refreshes language for clarity and incorporates the New Living Translation.

May you not only learn and believe these promises, but proclaim them---in your seasons of blessing and in your moments of need---and experience the presence and power of Jesus in your life, one day at a time.

Guidance

"If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking." (James 1:5, NLT)

LEARN, BELIEVE, PROCLAIM

Sleeplessness

"You can go to bed without fear; you will lie down and sleep soundly. You need not be afraid of sudden disaster or the destruction that comes upon the wicked, for the LORD is your security. He will keep your foot from being caught in a trap." (Proverbs 3:24–26, NLT)

Waiting on God

"Be still in the presence of the LORD, and wait patiently for him to act. Don’t worry about evil people who prosper or fret about their wicked schemes. Stop being angry! Turn from your rage! Do not lose your temper—it only leads to harm. For the wicked will be destroyed, but those who trust in the LORD will possess the land."
(Psalm 37:7–9, NLT)

Fear

"Don’t be afraid, for I am with you. Don’t be discouraged, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will hold you up with my victorious right hand." (Isaiah 41:10, NLT)
