Discussion Questions

Getting Started

As we find ourselves in the midst of spring, what is one of your favorite colors? Which bloom of the tree or flower do you look forward to the most? Do any colors motivate you to praise God for his beautiful creativeness?

Digging Deeper

Read the resurrection story in each account and take time to praise God for the price he paid to set you free from your sin (John 20:1-29; Matthew 28:1-15; Mark 16:1-8; Luke 24:1-49).

Read John 1:14-18. Jesus Christ came to this earth to give us both grace and truth. As you follow Jesus, are you growing in both of these attributes? Would you be considered a person of grace and truth? Or do you struggle with one characteristic?

Read about hope (1 Pt. 1:13; 1 Thess. 1:3; Col. 1:27; Eph. 1:18; Heb. 10:23; Isaiah 40:31; Jer. 29:11; Titus 1:1-3). This kind of hope is an assurance of the future because of God's love and mighty power. Does this hope guide you everyday?

Applying the Word to Life

Do you need to place your trust in Jesus Christ? Is there a difficulty in your life right now that requires you to trust an invisible God during a mysterious trial? Every time your anxiety rises up within you, state these words with confidence: "Not my will Jesus, but may your will be done."

What does it mean for you to believe that Jesus could return at any moment in your life? Would that change your priorities for the day? For the week? For the month? Would you stop doing certain activities or projects? Take a personal inventory of your life in light of the return of Jesus.
