ROMANS 4:13

For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

ROMANS 4:14

For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made
of none effect:

ROMANS 4:15

Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

ROMANS 4:16

Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

ROMANS 4:17

(As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

ROMANS 4:18

Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

ROMANS 4:19

And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb:

The background of the slide features a sunset or sunrise over a landscape. The sky is a mix of orange, red, and purple, with stars visible in the upper portion. In the foreground, there are dark, silhouetted hills. Three crosses are visible on the right side of the image, standing on small mounds of earth. The overall mood is solemn and reflective.

ROMANS 4:20

He staggered not at the promise of God
through unbelief; but was strong in faith,
giving glory to God;

ROMANS 4:22

And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
