

Two Ways to God

Romans 4:4-5

“All the problems of heaven and earth, though they were to confront us together and at once, would be nothing compared with the overwhelming problem of God: That He is; what He is like; and what we as moral beings must do about Him.”

- A.W. Tozer

“All the problems of heaven and earth, though they were to confront us together and at once, would be nothing compared with the overwhelming problem of God: That He is; what He is like; and what we as moral beings must do about Him.”

Hebrews 1:1-3

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature...

The wicked will not go unpunished, but those who are righteous will go free.

He who justifies the wicked and he who condemns the righteous are both alike an abomination to the LORD.

All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

Romans 3:20

For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight

justification

Faith + good works = justification

Faith = justification + good works

Isaiah 64:6

All our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment

1 Timothy 1:15

The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the foremost.
