MISSION IN FOCUS: BREAD OF LIFE FOOD BANK

The Bread of Life Food Bank at LC3 is more than a place to receive food—it's a place to encounter the love of Jesus. Our caring volunteers not only provide groceries but also pray with guests, offer encouragement, and include a devotion in each box as a reminder of God's deep love for every family.

As Thanksgiving approaches, we're preparing to provide each household with a complete holiday meal in addition to their regular weekly groceries. To make this possible, we need extra food donations of non-perishable items at our Food Drive on November 15–16. Can't make it to the store? Use this QR code and items will ship directly to the food bank!

- Food Drive Needs
- canned fruits/vegetables
 - canned chili/soups
 - seasonal (gravy, stuffing, cranberry sauce)
 - pasta/sauce
 - peanut butter
 - tuna
 - beans - canned or dry
 - cereal/oatmeal
 - broth - beef or chicken
 - macaroni/pasta meals

Looking ahead, our Client Christmas Party on December 18 is the highlight of the year! Through the Giving Tree, children receive gifts, families select presents for loved ones, and each household receives ingredients for a special Christmas meal.

Our ministry continues to grow—now serving 190–210 families weekly. Thank you for your faithful prayers, donations, and financial support that keep this vital outreach strong.

Prayer Requests:

- Abundance for the Nov. 15–16 Food Drive
- Overflowing generosity through the Giving Tree
- God's multiplication as needs increase
- Health, endurance, and joy for volunteers
