

LC3 Mission in Focus: Jeff Butler, Family Hope International

We are excited to share that Family Hope International (FHI) has continued to see growth and success in 2024 in our mission to free families from extreme poverty through our embrace, equip, empower, and employ process. This is thanks to the support of our sponsors and church partners. This year, our Ethiopia program is seeing graduation numbers higher than ever before, with 150 expected. Our new program in Kenya is strong, and 50% of the families have received microloans to start their own small businesses.

FHI continues to be incredibly grateful for the support of LC3 and the individual sponsors who help us free families from extreme poverty. We couldn't do it without you! If you aren't already partnering with us, we invite you to visit us online at FamilyHopeInternational.org where you can learn more, read about some of our graduates, or sponsor a family!

Prayer Requests

- For strength, growth, and success in our mission to free more families from extreme poverty;
- Families of Ethiopia suffering from exorbitant food prices due to inflation; for an end to the continued unrest in the north;
- That our new program in Kenya would be able to fund all needed microloans, and see families successfully attain self-sufficiency as they are in Ethiopia;
- For case managers and pastors in our program who are sharing the gospel and that unbelievers would come to know Jesus.

SATISFACTION IN THE SMALL THINGS LINDA SCHOLL

We started coming to LC3 just before the pandemic shut everything down. On my first visit I was overwhelmed by the size. I was certain I would get lost and never find my way around. The children's area downstairs was still under construction, promising an even bigger church.

That first visit we met Pastor Jim Kennington - he was so welcoming and kind but the church still seemed so big. It was our second time visiting and meeting Pastor Jim that led us to come back after the shutdown. He greeted us on our second visit as if he'd been waiting to see us again! He knew our names and was so happy to see us again. That was big.

Since that time, we met Pastor Rich Sewell who does what he and Karin do so well; they made us feel like apart of His plan. They made us feel usable for the Kingdom of God in the Prime Timers ministry; small things for a BIG purpose. Rich and Karin's genuine care for us has helped us grow in our personal walk with God.

Our God is such a big God. His mission is immense but at LC3, I believe we are seeing God's love for the small things. Zechariah 4:10 starts out, 'Who dares despise the day of small things.' The fellowship at LC3 is so warm. I always feel like people are just waiting for me to arrive. In essence, LC3 makes a big church seem small. We move to the center of the row to make room for others. John 13 tells how our big and mighty Savoir washed His disciples' feet. Sometimes I think that after 72 years I should have had a bigger life, but then I remember God has called me to the small things. I'm grateful for the opportunity to wash some feet.
