MISSION IN FOCUS: Bill & Vered, Lower Galilee Israel, Operation Mobilization

As has happened too frequently in recent years, our schedule was just filling in and we were gaining momentum when the war with Iran broke out. At present we are still restricted in many ways, including large gatherings. Thus, the fellowship in Tiberias is functioning only as home groups.

Due to airport closures from the war, no one from our OM Israel team was able to attend the international leadership conference in Cyprus, which Bill was scheduled to join.

In light of these restrictions, we are focusing on small groups (over 20 on our team), organizing literature (Afula and Tiberias), and preparing for our annual staff retreat, the last weekend of March. The retreat is not affected by the war as most of our staff are already in country.

Bill continues to frequently provide war bulletins, and Vered studies online.

Pray with Us:

- For opportunities to share with neighbors and acquaintances during this stressful time of war.
- For Dvir, our youngest, who already has a call-up date for the IDF in August 2027.
- For the Lord to help OM Israel staff to be able to return to the country, and to help three families in the process of joining our team.
