

MISSION IN FOCUS: Loaves & Fishes Holiday Baskets

Picture 1,500 local families sitting down for a holiday meal because people like you chose to help. In 2018, Loaves & Fishes began with just 62 baskets, two churches, and three schools. By 2026, we expect to provide 1,500 baskets through 42 schools and 12 churches. That is remarkable growth—and a growing challenge.

Each basket offers more than food. It gives a family dignity, hope, and a tangible reminder of Christ’s love. You can be a part of this ministry in Lakewood! First, we ask most for your prayers. Second, volunteer your time. Every prayer and every hour helps place food on a table and hope in a home. Together, we can make sure no neighbor is turned away.

To learn how you can be a part of Loaves & Fishes this season, stop by Connect, Serve, Grow in the Gathering Area after services this weekend, or visit Loaves-N-Fishes.org.

Pray With Us:

- For enough funds to provide baskets to all our clients.
- For many volunteers to assemble the baskets.
- For those who receive the baskets to feel the love of Jesus and their community.

Growing Through Betrayal

Betrayal & Beyond Participant

When I first saw the title Betrayal & Beyond, I assumed it would simply be another resource to help me process the sexual trauma I'd experienced throughout my life. Instead, God used this course to bring me face-to-face with the deep wounds of betrayal within my marriage—wounds I had tried so hard to carry and work through on my own.

I never imagined I would be walking through the reality of betrayal while taking this course in real time. Yet, God’s timing was undeniable.

Betrayal & Beyond didn’t just help guide me through my circumstances; it gave me practical tools, biblical understanding, and the confidence to respond differently than I ever had before. It helped me recognize my own patterns, responses, and areas where I needed healing. It taught me how to take ownership of what was mine, surrender it to Jesus, and at the same time establish healthy boundaries while honoring the value God has placed on me.

Perhaps the greatest gift this course gave me was that it laid a foundation for hope. Through biblical truth, healthy boundaries, accountability, loving support, and full surrender to Christ, I was given a framework to walk through healing one faithful step at a time. The course didn’t promise a particular outcome or restore every story in the same way, but it faithfully pointed me to the One who remains constant in every story. Today, I continue walking that path with hope—not because everything is perfect, but because my foundation is firmly rooted in Christ, who continues His healing work in me.
