

Marriage in This Cultural Moment

Ice Breaker: What's a lie or myth that you believed growing up? How did you learn the truth? How did it feel to find out it wasn't true?

1. What are some things or people that you have to submit to? How is that? What makes it harder or easier to submit?
2. Have you ever experienced oppression from someone you were required to submit to?
3. Do you have an interesting story (good or bad) of submitting to:
 - a. Governing authorities
 - b. Employers
 - c. Elders

4. What does it mean to you that we are told to submit to one another?
5. Pastor David talked about the biblical role for husbands and wives. Discuss in your group the idea of headship and submission. What makes it hard? What would make it better? Do you disagree with his take from the sermon? If so, why?
6. Who's the best leader you ever served? What made them so good?
7. Do you agree that good parenting means making your marriage a priority? Why or why not?
8. Who are some married couples you can pray for individually?
9. What can we do as a Community Group to support and encourage marriages?
