

Missions in Focus: Kelli Boesel, One Challenge

What a busy 2023 so far! One Challenge's (OC) communications department (which I'm a part of) has been working hard on new brand messaging for OC. It's been a challenging, creative, and rewarding process. Our official launch of the new website, social media, products, etc., is in October. Excited to see our hard work completed!

In June, I led two missionary kids' (MK) programs. One focused on training, and the other on renewal for our overseas workers. Investing in MKs, sharing in their joys and sorrows, is the best part of my ministry. MKs are so special, and it's a privilege to help them process, give them safe spaces to grieve, and opportunities to laugh together.

Thank you for praying and being partners in both my primary ministries – in communicating God's work through OC and serving our missionary families by caring for their children.

Prayer Requests:

- Pray for OC families, especially the kids, around the world. Pray they would feel the love of Jesus daily.
- Pray for OC's ministry to be communicated clearly through the rebranding process. Pray the Lord would use the new products to advance His kingdom.
- Pray for my energy and perseverance as I work to serve our missions community well.

PRAYER

We want to pray with you. If you would like someone to pray with you, a pastor or elder is available immediately following each service in the Prayer Room.

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS!

This past weekend we gathered as a church family to celebrate 100 years of God's faithfulness and goodness to our church. The weekend kicked off with games and worship, and finished with 29 baptisms. In the middle we had bingo, a carnival for the neighborhood (with over 850 people!), and more fun reminiscing about how God has been faithful to, and used Lake City to share His love over the years.

Over 1,000 people joined us this weekend - it truly was an awesome time as a church family. And you, Lake City, showed up; not just to have fun and celebrate together, but to contribute to the family. So many volunteers have been working faithfully for over six months to make this past weekend a success. Your staff couldn't have done it without you, and we are so grateful for every person who played a part - welcoming and greeting; security, parking and first aid; childcare so parents could enjoy the services; and set-up and tear-down. It really did take the whole family!

God has been so faithful to our church. He has for 100 years, and He continues today. We are excited to see how God uses us in the next 100 years!
