Thank you, LC3, for investing in Lakewood, Steilacoom, and DuPont Young Life and in the kids in our community! From clubs in middle and high schools, to Campaigner Bible studies, camps at Malibu and Washington Family Ranch, to clubs for teen moms and kids with special needs, your support of staff and students has a wide impact.

LC3 has the privilege of hosting the 2026 Young Life Banquet, celebrating 70 years of impacting kids for Christ, on Sunday, March 22, in our own gym! Come meet Jeremy Arruda, the new Young Life area director, and hear directly from students whose lives have been changed by Jesus. Be prepared to laugh, maybe cry, and support the next year of Young Life ministry in Lakewood, Steilacoom, and DuPont!

Pray with Us:

- For more leaders to step forward and engage with kids, sharing the Good News of Jesus.
- For a generous response from our community to provide the financial support needed for continued Kingdom impact in the lives of kids in Lakewood, Steilacoom, and DuPont.
- For many in the next generation to come to faith in Jesus Christ.

CALLED TO SERVE

Chris Peters

When I first became a member of LC3, one of the first things I felt led to do was serve. About three years ago, I joined the security team, continuing a path that had already been part of my life for many years. At my previous church, I spent twelve years serving as an usher. Over that decade, I learned that serving does far more than simply fill a role—it shapes the heart. It creates opportunities to welcome people, care for them, and help make the church a place where everyone feels seen and safe.

I've come to believe that serving is one of the spiritual gifts God has placed in my life. As it says in Romans 12:6-7, "We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us... if your gift is serving, then serve." When the Holy Spirit places that calling on your heart, it's hard to ignore. Stepping into service has always felt like the natural response to the grace God has given.

"Stepping into service has always felt like the natural response to the grace God has given."

One of the unexpected blessings of serving on the security team has been the relationships. Before services begin, there are countless small conversations—greeting visitors, catching up with church family, or simply sharing a smile with someone walking through the doors. Those moments remind me that church is more than a building; it's a community of people walking together in faith.

What truly stands out at LC3, though, is the culture of gratitude. I've never been part of a church that cares so deeply for its volunteers. Whether it's simple words of appreciation throughout the year or the special end-of-season celebrations hosted by our leadership, that spirit of thankfulness means a great deal. It's a reminder that every act of service matters. And it's a big part of why I continue to serve with such joy and dedication.
