MISSION IN FOCUS: Nate & Jana Duriga, SIM, Strasbourg, France

Since January, our student ministry has held two debate nights: one meant for skeptics and the other for Muslims. These went very well, resulting in significant faith conversations - one with an atheist after the first event and another with a Muslim (raised in France) after the second event.

A leadership transition at our church (planted 8 years ago) has left us carrying more responsibility in church leadership than ever before with Nate as an elder and Jana responding to needs. We have felt stretched and exhausted, but we have been filled with faith, strength, and encouragement by the Lord. We presented an excellent French pastoral candidate in March, and the church will vote on him in early May. We pray that the Lord will guide this process and provide for this next phase as we seek to be salt and light in a difficult, multi-cultural neighborhood of Strasbourg.

Pray With Us

- For unity in the church's pastoral search process
- For follow up with the atheist and Muslim – that God will remove obstacles to faith
- For continual spiritual renewal and encouragement for us
