Missions In Focus

Nate & Jana Duriga - SIM:

“If I really want to understand the Bible, where should I start??”

This was a student’s question to Nate as we sat together at a kebab restaurant. He had visited our church in Strasbourg, France, a few weeks prior, and is now a regular attender. All this is remarkable because he is Muslim! This is one example of a relationship the Lord has given us as we present the Good News to students arriving from the Muslim world and walk with others as they journey with Christ. We are so grateful for our first 2-year term of ministry in Strasbourg, where God has placed us in a setting in which our family is thriving and our kids are integrating well. We are healthy and we are working hard to show hospitality, share the Gospel, and teach God’s Word to believers as they grow in their faith.

Prayer Requests:

- Pray for “A”, the student who has begun attending church and reading the Bible, that he will encounter Jesus Christ.
- Pray for mutually encouraging visits with churches and supporters in July and August during our home assignment.
- Pray for wisdom for Nate and Jana in September, as we commit our time to new opportunities in student ministry, church life, and refugee outreach.
