Rosh Hashanah: The Feast of Trumpets

Introduction

1. The Festivals (Mo'edim) = The _____ times (Lev. 23:1-4)

➤ God wants a relationship with _____

2. Yom Teruah = a day of _____ (Num. 29:1)

3. These are not the feasts of the Jewish people, or the feasts of Israel, these are the feasts of _____ (Lev. 23:2)

4. The Festivals are a _____ for how God wants to connect with His children and for what He has planned for our future together.

"The Mo'edim are eternal rhythms that anchor heaven's plan to earth's timeline... Just as Yeshua literally became the Passover Lamb, so too He will literally return at the Fall Festivals, bring final atonement (Zech. 12:10), and dwell among His people during Sukkot (Zech. 14; Rev. 21)." – Joshua Nunez

5. The Apostle Paul says that the festivals are a "shadow of what _____." (Col. 2:17)

6. The Feasts will play a central role in our worship during _____ (Zech. 14:16)

Rosh Hashanah in Historical Context

1. The Biblical institution of Rosh Hashanah was in Lev. 23:23-25 & Num. 29:1-6

2. The themes of Rosh Hashanah include:

- A wake-up call (Isa. 58:1)
- Covenant of remembrance (Exod. 19:18; Jer. 31:31-33)
- Alarm of judgment (Amos 3:6; Joel 2:1)
- Repentance and spiritual preparation (Isa. 58:1)
- Return and restoration (Isa. 27:13)
- Kingship of God (Ps. 47:5-8)

Rosh Hashanah and the Return of Jesus

1. The Feast of Trumpets is often linked exclusively to the Rapture of the Church, however:
 - Trumpets were used throughout the year in biblical times including the other Feasts.
 - All the Feasts have prophetic implications, not just the Fall Feasts.
 - The Feast of Trumpets will only be completely fulfilled in the Millennial Kingdom.

"To suggest that Yeshua fulfilled the Spring Feasts... with literal and exact precision, but will only fulfill the Fall Feasts spiritually or symbolically, would be inconsistent with the Scripture and the character of G-d." – Joshua Nunez

2. The Feast of Trumpets fundamentally foreshadows a Messianic _____ ceremony, where Messiah Jesus will be crowned as King in Jerusalem and reign from the throne of David in the Millennial Kingdom.

"Christians and Messianic Jews can celebrate the Feast of Trumpets today looking forward to the great coronation ceremony that will take place on God's holy mountain in the future... as a foretaste of the day when He will reign as King of the messianic age."
(Travis Snow, The Biblical Feasts and the Return of Jesus)

3. The Fall Feasts tell a divine _____:

- Rosh Hashanah – The awakening and preparation of the Bride
- Yom Kippur – The Bride is received and beautified
- Sukkot – The Wedding Feast (Rev. 19:6-8)
