

WELCOME GUESTS!

We are so glad you joined us this weekend and hope you find your time here rejuvenating and encouraging. If you're joining us at our Lakewood campus, please visit our Welcome Center in the Gathering Area - we'd love to meet you and help you find ways to connect. Below are some tips for our Lakewood campus to help you feel comfortable.

- There is a Family Worship Room in the rear of the Worship Center where your children are free to move about, and additional seating in Kids Main during Sunday morning services.
- Please visit our self-serve Library in the Lower Lobby anytime the building is open.
- Join us for our next Starting Point class Sunday, June 14, at 11 AM in the Olympic Room to meet others looking for church community, hear the heart of our church, and meet pastors and staff.

MISSION IN FOCUS: Kelli Boesel, One Challenge

Hello LC3! Last year, my organization, One Challenge (OC), experienced a lot of changes. Mainly, we merged with another mission called Entrust. This year feels like a building year, establishing and growing relationships and ministry. In my world of marketing and communications, we are redefining our joint story, combining our websites, and cultivating our donor relationship structure. It's exciting, creative work!

My year highlight, so far, is welcoming a family into OC who are serving in Guatemala. They have three boys, ages from 11-15 years, who are experiencing the joys and challenges of third culture-kid life. As I grew up in Guatemala, it was special to connect with them on a familiar level. We laughed about culture, pined over tasty dishes we missed, and talked about the reality of growing up overseas. It was a meaningful and encouraging week. The picture I included here is of that time together (I'm second from right).

Pray With Us

- Pray for the continued coming together of One Challenge. Combining two cultures, systems, and people takes a lot of time and needs to be covered in prayer.
- Pray for me as I lead a team of three incredible women. Pray I have discernment and seek first the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
- Pray for my health. I seem to be in a perpetual cycle of getting sick. This wears on my body and mental health.

BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS & GROWING

Casey Swenson

Almost 20 years ago a dear brother, Tony Oury, invited me to experience my first men's camp. That invite created a lifetime bond. At the camp, we had the opportunity to get to know one another as well as get to know other men of LC3. That Man Camp was literally camping: tents, fire-pit cooking, late night conversations, friendly card games, and competitions. It was great.

Until that camp, I had no idea how important godly relationships are - especially man-to-man. Since that first experience, the camps have evolved. There's no more tent camping but the fellowship has only gotten better. Proverbs 27:17 says, "Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another." Man Camp does just that. We get deep into the Word of God and we are better men because of it. I asked a few men to share their experience. Here is what they had to say:

"The last man camp was one of the few places I was able to engage in real conversations with other men. Those are rare and very far and few between. Why is that so important? Men need real conversations with other men and not listening to themselves all by themselves." - Eric Wylie

"The stories men shared at Man Camp showed me that God is stronger than their flaws and mine. He will bring us together and heal our hearts." - Wilbur Hannan

"I loved getting away to a different venue, unplugged from the hustle and bustle of daily life. I made new friendships and deepened others. I was able to spend uninterrupted quiet time with the Lord; He restores and refreshes my soul in times like this." - Tyler Knack

Man Camp will be taking place on October 2-4, 2026, with various speakers from our church leadership. We will be spending the weekend at the Cascades Camp in Yelm, Washington. All we ask is that you sign up and show up with an open heart, ready to hear what God wants you to learn about who He says you are in Him. Be prepared to be transformed. We can't wait to get to know you and grow with you!
