

MISSIONS IN FOCUS: Table of Nations (LC3)

Malawi is grappling with the devastation caused by Cyclone Freddy. We praise God our LC3 supported missionaries are safe: Ron Letendre, Kossi & Whitney Apki and the Passion Center. The death toll has now risen to over 500, with over 490,098 people displaced and almost 500 still missing. Many areas are too difficult to reach, making search and rescue assistance impossible. The cyclone has caused untold trauma, loss, and hopelessness.

The Passion Center staff continues to take food and other essential supplies to emergency camps and villages, helping those who've lost everything. They also pray with and share encouragement from the Bible at each visit, giving hope to the hopeless. Of the houses they've visited so far, all are either destroyed or unlivable. One example of the devastation is the home of four orphans that collapsed completely. The family was evacuated to a nearby school housing over 1100 people. Though now they have safe shelter, they went three days without food before relief came. This is the type of challenge many are facing. Our prayers and support are needed. You can donate towards the relief effort at LC3.com/donate, or using the QR code provided.

Prayer Requests:

- For the rains to cease so assessments can be done and relief supplies delivered.
- Safety for those living out in the open or in unsafe homes.
- Comfort for those who have missing family members or who've lost family.
- Funds and encouragement to continue bringing relief supplies and sharing the hope of God.

COME INTO THE ARK

TAX PREP @ LC3

The Neighborhood Center of LC3 is helping provide free income tax preparation by trained IRS tax volunteers to our neighbors. Barbara Racioppi, our church librarian, is one of those trained tax preparers. Led by Janet Spingath, volunteers Fred Bottger,

Diane Bauml and Marie Gift (pictured) greet clients when they come in the door of our lobby and gently help them begin filling out the required forms for the tax preparers.

Clients have expressed relief and comfort at being greeted so warmly when they come for tax preparation help. Several have responded with interest when we invite them to church, and one engaged us with prayer. We strive to show everyone who comes love and honor. In the words of one recent client, "You are an answer to prayer!" We don't have to go far to find a mission field to minister; sometimes they will even come to us!
