Ice Breaker - If your group is up for the challenge, try a trust walk. Set up some obstacles (i.e. chairs, objects on the floor, etc.). One at a time, blindfold someone and guide them through the course.

1. Abraham is old. As a group, look at Abraham's life from an overall viewpoint: What are some character qualities that stand out and why (good and bad)? Do you identify with any of those character qualities?

2. What stood out about Eliezer?
Why?
3. Pastor Tung talked about being unequally yoked. As a group discuss the main points he brought up. What has been your experience in your own life or with people close to you?
4. Share a time that you felt God was asking you to trust Him for something? How do you feel like you did? What did you learn or how did you grow from the experience?
