MISSION IN FOCUS: LC3-Supported East Africa Ministries

Just a month ago, I (Lura Anderson) sat on the warm verandah of the Passion Center for Children in Malawi with Jully and Aaron Bullock, watching their sons, Aaron, Jr, and Elliot, playing with a rope swing on a large branch. It was such a joy to share in the lives of LC3-supported missionaries!

During three short weeks in East Africa I spent time with Jeff Butler and Family Hope International (FHI); Asante Masanche of Brothers in Arms; Kossi and Whitney Akpi and their three children who help both FHI and Brothers in Arms; and the Passion Center for Children with Pastor Eric VBS and the Bullocks. I met amazing, fun and talented Passion Center staff. We traveled together, ate and laughed together, prayed with each other, and marveled at the beauty of Africa and the people we met.

Despite the beauty that surrounded us, we couldn't help but also see some of the challenges that come with living in Malawi. One of the world's poorest economies, there is much need. Currently, one of the primary challenges they face is a fuel shortage. We witnessed long fuel lines as people hoped for a chance to purchase gasoline. The shortage has driven prices to the highest in Africa and disrupted transportation, business, and daily life.

Pray with us:

- Encouragement for Akpis, Bullocks, and Passion Center staff
- The fuel crisis to stabilize
- Cooking gas to be brought in to the country
- God to continue to provide for desperately poor families
