

And to Your Offspring

Genesis 26:1-33

Ice Breaker: Share a similarity - looks or mannerism - you have with a family member.

1. What does it mean that “our faith is the basis for our righteousness”?
How can your works show others your faith?
2. “Our culture applauds conflict.” In the stories of the wells, both Abraham and Isaac chose peace over conflict. Why do you think they did this and what motivated them?

3. The best way to avoid negatively influencing the next generation is to set positive examples for our children. Discuss what the Bible says are positive examples to live out.
4. What part does the church play in being an influence on younger generations? How have you served in this capacity or how could you?
5. Generational sin can have devastating consequences. How can we lean into God's redemptive work to break the bondage of generational sin?
