MISSION IN FOCUS: PRAY FOR NIGER

As many of you know, Niger is one of LC3's key outreach focus areas. In 2023, the nation's democratically elected president was removed in a military coup. This instability has greatly increased the danger for many followers of Christ in Niger, including those who have served faithfully for years.

We are deeply concerned for Kevin Rideout, a husband, father of four, and longtime LC3 friend, who was abducted in October from Niamey, the capital city. For decades, Kevin and his family have flown Harvest laborers and visitors—including many from LC3—along with medical evacuations and supplies throughout Niger. There has been no word on his whereabouts, and he and his family urgently need our prayers.

Nigeria is also experiencing unrest. The situation in both countries is complex, and our greatest response to evil and persecution is prayer—for safety, stability, and for the light of Christ to shine brightly across this region.

Action Step: Join us this Sunday, November 16 at 5:30 PM, for LC3's 5th International Night of Worship as we pray for the salvation and shalom of these nations—and for all nations—from Jerusalem to the ends of the earth.

Prayer Requests

- Pray for the Lord to sustain, protect and strengthen Kevin, and for his quick release.
- Pray for Krista and their 4 college/young adult kids to trust God's care and timing.
- Pray for the leadership over our friends as they make decisions for safety of their members.
- Pray for the overall security situation in both Nigeria and Niger and other neighboring countries in the Sahel region of west Africa.

GOD'S FAITHFULNESS THROUGH GENERATIONS

Dustin Kinney & Neilia Moliassa

At LC3, we are blessed to see God's faithfulness woven through the lives of our families—and sometimes that faithfulness becomes beautifully visible in the next generation.

This month, we want to highlight one of our incredible young volunteers: Dustin Kinney, age 18. Dustin grew up in our church, attending the elementary ministry when it was still called Promise Land. As a kid, he watched his mom, Neilia, faithfully serve—helping children learn Bible stories, memorize Scripture, and see Jesus' love lived out each week.

Today, Dustin is following in her footsteps. Now a young adult, he serves regularly in our elementary ministry, leading kids with joy, patience, and enthusiasm. This past summer he even stepped into character as Joseph in Egypt, helping children understand God's faithfulness through Joseph's story. Dustin says his heart for serving comes from watching his mom's example—and now he gets to pass that same love for God's Word to the next generation.

Recently he shared this experience: "One weekend I was leading the kids' large-group lesson in Elementary. We had over 50 kids that service, and most of the helpers in the room were high schoolers and middle schoolers. It made me realize how well our church has disciplined the younger generations. They aren't serving because they have to—they serve because they want to. It's amazing to see how much God is moving in our church!"

Dustin's story is a reminder that spiritual investment matters. When parents and adults step into ministry, kids notice. They remember. And often, they grow up to do the very same.

As we continue to pour into our children, we invite parents and adults to join us in shaping the next generation of believers. Your influence—your presence—could be the spark that encourages a child to walk faithfully with Jesus for a lifetime.

God is at work in our church family, from one generation to the next. Let's continue the legacy together.
